The PSALMS of DAVID, in Metre.

PSAL. I.

THat man hath perfect blessed-
who walketh not astray [ness],
In counsel of ungodly men,
nor stands in sinners way,
Nor sitteth in the scorners chair:

2 But placeth his delight
Upon God's law, and meditates
on his law day and night.

3 He shall be like a tree that grows
near planted by a river,
Which in his season yields his fruit,
and his leaf fadeth never:
And all he doth shall prosper well.

4 The wicked are not so:
But like they are unto the chaff
which wind drives to and fro.

5 In judgment therefore shall not stand such as ungodly are,
Nor in th' assembly of the just shall wicked men appear.

6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

PSAL. II.

WHy rage the heathen? and vain
why do the people mind? [things]

2 Kings of the earth do fe; themselves,
and princes are combin'd
To plot against the Lord, and his Anointed, saying thus,
3 Let us afunder break their bands,
and cast their cords from us.

4 He that in heaven sits, shall laugh:
the Lord shall scorn them all.

5 Then shall he speak to them in wrath,
in rage he vex them shall.

6 Yet notwithstanding I have him,
to be my King appointed:
And ov'r Sion my holy hill
I have him King anointed.

7 The sure decree I will declare:
the Lord hath said to me,
Thou art mine only Son, this day
I have begotten thee.

8 Ask of me, and for heritage
the heathen I'll make thine;
And, for possession, I to thee
will give earth's utmost line.

9 Thou shalt, as with a weighty rod
of iron, break them all;
And, as a potter's sherd, thou shalt
them dash in pieces small.

10 Now therefore, kings, be wise, be ye judges of the earth. [taught,

11 Serve God in fear, and see that ye join trembling with your mirth.

12 Kiss ye the Son, lest in his ire
ye perish from the way,
If once his wrath begin to burn:
blest all that on him stay.

PSAL. III.

O Lord, how are my foes increas'd?
against me many rise.

2 Many say of my soul, For him
in God no succour lies.

3 Yet thou my shield and glory art,
th' uplifter of mine head.

4 I cry'd, and from his holy hill
the Lord me answer made.

5 I laid me down and slept, I wak'd,
for God sustained me.

6 I will not fear, though thousands ten set round against me be.

7 Arise, O Lord, save me, my God;
for thou my foes hast stroke
All on the cheek-bone, and the teeth
of wicked men hast broke.

8 Salvation doth appertain
unto the Lord alone:

Thy blessing, Lord, for evermore
thy people is upon.

PSAL. IV.

Give ear unto me when I call,
God of my righteousness;
Have mercy, hear my pray'r, thou hast
enlarg'd me in distress.

2 O ye the sons of men, how long will ye love vanities?
How long my glory turn to shame,
and will ye follow lies?

3 But know that for himself the Lord
the godly man doth chuse;
The Lord, when I on him do call,
to hear will not refuse. [heart

4 Fear, and sin not, talk with your on bed, and silent be.

5 Offerings present of righteousness,
and in the Lord trust ye.

6 O who will shew us any good?
is that which many say:
But of thy countenance the light,
Lord, lift on us alway.

7 Upon my heart bestow'd by thee
more gladness I have found, [wine Than they, ev'n then, when corn and did most with them abound.

8 I will both lay me down in peace,
and quiet sleep will take;
Because thou only me to dwell
in safety, Lord, dost make.

PSAL. V.

Give ear unto my words, O Lord,
my meditation weigh. [God,

2 Hear my loud cry, my King, my
for I to thee will pray.

3 Lord, thou shalt early hear my voice,
I early will direct
My pray'r to thee, and looking up an answer will expect.

4 For thou art not a God that doth
in wickedness delight:

P S A L. VI, VII.

Neither shall evil dwell with thee ;
 5 Nor fools stand in thy sight :
 All that ill doers are thou hat'st.
 6 Cut't off that liars be :
 The bloody and deceitful man
 abhorred is by thee.
 7 But I into thy house will come in thine abundant grace :
 And I will worship in thy fear toward thy holy place.
 8 Because of those mine enemies,
 Lord, in thy righteousness
 do thou me lead ; do thou thy way
 make straight before my face.
 9 For in their mouth there is no truth,
 their inward part is ill ;
 Their throat's an open sepulchre,
 their tongue doth flatter still.
 10 O God, destroy them, let them be
 by their own counsel quell'd :
 Them for their many sins cast out,
 for they 'gainst thee rebell'd.
 11 But let all joy that trust in thee,
 and still make shouting noise :
 For them thou sav'st ; let all that love
 thy name, in thee rejoice.
 12 For, Lord, unto the righteous man
 thou wilt thy blessing yield,
 With favour thou wilt compass him
 about, as with a shield.

P S A L. VI.

Lord, in thy wrath rebuke me not,
 nor in thy hot rage chasten me.
 2 Lord, pity me, for I am weak :
 heal me, for my bones vexed be.
 3 My soul is also vexed sore ; [make ?
 but, Lord, how long stay wilt thou
 4 Return, O Lord, my soul set free ;
 O save me for thy mercy's sake.
 5 Because those that deceased are,
 of thee shall no remembrance have ;
 And who is he that will to thee
 give praises, lying in the grave ?
 6 I with my groaning weary am,
 I also, all the night, my bed
 Have caused for to swim ; and I
 with tears my couch have watered.
 7 Mine eye, consum'd with grief, grows
 because of all mine enemies. [old, 8 Hence from me wicked workers all,
 for God hath heard my weeping cries.
 9 God hath my supplication heard,
 my pray'r received graciously. [foes, 10 Shalt'st and sore-vex'd be all my sham'd and back turned suddenly.

Another of the same.

In thy great indignation,
 O Lord, rebuke me not :
 Nor on me lay thy chastening hand
 in thy displeasure hot.
 2 Lord, I am weak, therefore on me
 have mercy, and me spare :
 Heal me, O Lord, because thou know'st
 my bones much vexed are.
 3 My soul is vexed sore : but Lord,
 how long stay wilt thou make ?
 4 Return, Lord, free my soul, and save me for thy mercy's sake.

5 Because of thee in death there shall no more remembrance be :
 Of those that in the grave do ly,
 who shall give thanks to thee ?
 6 I with my groaning weary am,
 and all the night my bed
 I caused for to swim : with tears
 my couch I watered.
 7 By reason of my vexing grief,
 mine eye consumed is ;
 It waxeth old because of all
 that be mine enemies.
 8 But now depart from me, all ye
 that work iniquity :
 For why, the Lord hath heard ^{voice,} my
 when I did mourn and cry.
 9 Unto my supplication
 the Lord did hearing give ;
 When I to him my prayer make,
 the Lord will it receive.

10 Let all be sham'd and troubled for that en'mies are to me ;
 Let them turn back, and suddenly ashamed let them be.

P S A L. VII.

O Lord my God, in thee do I
 my confidence repose :
 Save and deliver me from all
 my persecuting foes.
 2 Lest that the enemy my soul
 should like a lion tear,
 In pieces renting it, while there is no deliverer.
 3 O Lord my God, if it be so that I committed this ;
 If it be so that in my hands
 iniquity there is :
 4 If I rewarded ill to him
 that was at peace with me ; (Yea, ev'n the man that without cause
 my foe was, I did free)
 5 Then let the foe pursue, and take my soul, and my life thrust Down to the earth, and let him lay mine honour in the dust.
 6 Rise in thy wrath, Lord, raise thyself
 for my foes raging be ;
 And to the judgment which thou hast
 commanded, wake for me.
 7 So shall th' assembly of thy folk
 about encompass thee :
 Thou therefore, for their sakes, return
 unto thy place on high.
 8 The Lord he shall the people judge :
 my judge, Jehovah, be,
 After my righteousness, and mine
 integrity in me.
 9 O let the wicked's malice end,
 but stablish steadfastly
 The righteous ; for the righteous God
 the hearts and reins doth try.
 10 In God, who saves th' upright in
 is my defence and stay. heart, 11 God just men judgeth, God is wroth
 with ill men ev'ry day.
 12 If he do not return again,
 then he his sword will whet ;

P S A L. VIII, IX, X.

His bow he hath already bent,
and hath it ready set.
13 He also hath for him prepar'd
the instruments of death :
Against the persecutors he his shafts ordain'd hath.
14 Behold, he with iniquity
doth travail as in birth ;
A mischief he conceived hath,
and falshood shall bring forth.
15 He made a pit, and digg'd it deep,
another there to take,
But he is fall'n into the ditch
which he himself did make.
16 Upon his own head his mischief
shall be returned home ;
His villent dealing also down
on his own pate shall come.
17 According to his righteousness
the Lord I'll magnify :
And will sing praise unto the name
of God that is most high.

P S A L. VIII.

How excellent in all the earth,
Lord, our Lord, is thy name !
Who hast thy glory far advanc'd
above the starry frame. [mouth
2 From infants and from sucklings
thou didest strength ordain,
For thy foes cause, that to thou might'st
th' avenging foe restrain.
3 When I look up unto the heav'ns,
which thine own fingers fram'd,
Unto the moon, and to the stars,
which were by thee ordain'd, 4 Then say I, What is man, that he remembered is by thee ?
Or what the son of man, that thou
so kind to him shouldst be ?
5 For thou a little lower hast
him than the angels made,
With glory and with dignity
thou crown'd hast his head. [lord, 6 Of thy hand-works thou mad'st him
all under's feet did'st lay :
7 All sheep and oxen, yea and beasts
that in the field do stray.
8 Fowls of the air, fish of the sea,
all that pass through the same.
9 How excellent in all the earth,
Lord, our Lord, is thy name !

P S A L. IX.

Lord, thee I'll praise with all my thy wonders all proclaim. [heart,
2 In thee, most High, I'll greatly joy,
and sing unto thy name. [fess, 3 When back my foes were turn'd, they
and perish'd at thy sight. cause ;
4 For thou maintain'dst my right and
on throne sat'st, judging right.
5 The heathen thou rebuked hast,
the wicked overthrown ; [they Thou hast put out their names, that may never more be known.
6 O en'my ! now destructions have an end perpetual :
Thou cities raz'd, perish'd with them
is their memorial.

7 God shall endure for ay, he doth
for judgment set his throne :
8 In righteousness to judge the world,
justice to give each one.
9 God also will a refuge be
for those that are oppress'd ;
A refuge will he be in times
of trouble to distress.
10 And they that know thy name, in their confidence will place : [thes For thou hast not forsaken them
that truly seek thy face.
11 O sing ye praises to the Lord,
that dwells in Zion hill :
And, all the nations among,
his deeds record ye still.
12 When he enquireth after blood,
he then remembereth them :
The humble folk he not forgets,
that call upon his name.
13 Lord, pity me, behold the grief
which I from foes sustain ; [death Ev'n thou, who from the gates of
dost raise me up again :
14 That I in Sion's daughters gates,
may all thy praise advance :
And that I may rejoice always in thy deliverance.
15 The heathen are sunk in the pit,
which they themselves prepar'd ;
And in the net which they have hid,
their own feet fast are snar'd.
16 The Lord is by the judgment known,
which he himself hath wrought :
The sinners hands do make the snares,
wherewith themselves are caught.
17 They, who are wicked, into hell
each one shall turned be ;
And all the nations that forget
to seek the Lord most high.
18 For they that needy are, shall not forgotten be alway ;
The expectation of the poor
shall not be lost for ay.
19 Arise, Lord, let not man prevail ;
judge heathens in thy sight. [men, 20 That they may know themselves but the nations, Lord, affright.

P S A L. X.

Wherefore is it, that thou, O Lord,
dost stand from us afar ?
And wherefore hidest thou thyself,
when times so troublous are ?
2 The wicked in his loftiness
doth persecute the poor :
In these devices they have fram'd,
let them be taken sure.
3 The wicked of his heart's desire doth talk with boasting great :
He blesteth him that's covetous,
whom yet the Lord doth hate.
4 The wicked, through his pride of
on God he doth not call ; [face,
And in the counsels of his heart
the Lord is not at all.
5 His ways they always grievous are ;
thy judgments from his sight

P S A L. XI, XII, XIII, XIV.

Removed are: at all his foes
he puffeth with despoight.

6 Within his heart he thus hath said,
I shall not moved be;
And no adversity at all shall ever come to me.

7 His mouth with cursing, fraud, deis fill'd abundantly: ^{[ceit,} And underneath his tongue there is mischief and vanity.

8 He clofly sits in villages;
he slays the innocent:
Against the poor, that pass him by,
his cruel eyes are bent.

9 He lion-like lurks in his den;
he waits the poor to take:
And when he draws him in his net,
his prey he doth him make.

10 Himself he humbleth very low,
he croucheth down withal,
That so a multitude of poor
may by his strong ones fall.

11 He thus hath said within his heart,
The Lord hath quite forgot:
He hides his countenance, and he
for ever sees it not.

12 O Lord, do thou arise; O God,
lift up thine hand on high:
Put not the meek afflicted ones
out of thy memory.

13 Why is it that the wicked man
thus doth the Lord despise?
Because, that God will it require,
he in his heart denies. ^{[chief}

14 Thou hast it seen, for their mis-
and spite thou wilt repay:
The poor commits himself to thee,
thou art the orphans stay.

15 The arm break of the wicked man,
and of the evil one;
Do thou seek out his wickedness,
until thou findest none.

16 The Lord is King through ages all,
ev'n to eternity:
The heathen people from his land
are perish'd utterly.

17 O Lord, of those that humble are thou the desire didst hear:
Thou wilt prepare their heart, and thou
to hear wilt bend thine ear,

18 To judge the fatherless, and those that are oppress'd sore:
That man, that is but sprung of earth,
may them oppress no more.

P S A L. XI.

I In the Lord do put my trust;
how is it then that ye say to my soul, Flee as a bird unto your mountain high?

2 For lo, the wicked bend their bow,
their shafts on strings they fit,
That those who upright are in heart,
they privily may hit.

3 If the foundations be destroy'd,
what hath the righteous done?

4 God in his holy temple is,
in heaven is his throne:

His eyes do see, his eye-lids try 5 mens sons. The just he proves:
But his soul hates the wicked man,
and him that violence loves.

6 Snarers, fire and brimstone, furious
on sinners he shall rain: ^[storm]
This, as the portion of their cup, doth unto them pertain.

7 Because the Lord most righteous doth
in righteousness delight,
And with a pleasant countenance
beholdeth the upright.

P S A L. XII.

Help, Lord, because the godly man
doth daily fade away,
And from among the sons of men
the faithful do decay.

2 Unto his neighbour ev'ry one doth utter vanity:

They with a double heart do speak,
and lips of flattery.

3 God shall cut off all flatter'ing lips,
tongues that speak proudly thus,

4 We'll with our tongue prevail, our are ours: who's Lord o'er us? ^[lips]

5 For poor oppress'd, and for the sighs
of needy folk, will I, Saith God, and him in safety set
from such as him defy.

6 The words of God are words most they be like silver try'd ^{[pure,}
In earthen furnace, seven times that hath been purify'd. ^[keep]

7 Lord, thou shalt them preserve and for ever from this race.

8 On each side walk the wicked, when wise men are high in place.

P S A L. XIII.

H ow long wilt thou forget me, Lord,
shall it for ever be?

0 how long shall it be, that thou wilt hide thy face from me?

2 How long take counsel in my soul,
still sad in heart, shall I?

How long exalted over me
shall be mine enemy?

3 O Lord my God, consider well,
and answer to me make:

Mine eyes enlighten, lest the sleep
of death me overtake.

4 Lest that mine enemy should say,
Against him I prevail'd;

And those that trouble me rejoice,
when I am mov'd and fail'd.

5 But I have all my confidence
thy mercy set upon;

My heart within me shall rejoice
in thy salvation.

6 I will unto the Lord my God
sing praises cheerfully,
Because he hath his beauty shewn
to me abundantly.

P S A L. XIV.

T hat there is not a God, the fool
doth in his heart conclude:

They are corrupt, their works are vile,
not one of them doth good.

PSAL. XV, XVI, XVII.

2 Upon mens sons the Lord from did cast his eyes abroad; [heav'n;
To see if any understood,
and did seek after God.

3 They altogether filthy are,
they all aside are gone;
And there is none that doeth good,
yea, sure there is not one.

4 These workers of iniquity,
do they not know at all,
That they my people eat as bread,
and on God do not call?

5 There fear'd they much; for God is the whole race of the just. [with 6 You shame the counsel of the poor,

because God is his trust.

7 Let Isra'l's help from Zion come:
when back the Lord shall bring His captives, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall sing.

PSAL. XV.

W ithin thy tabernacle, Lord,
who shall abide with thee?
And in thy high and holy hill
who shall a dweller be?

2 The man that walketh uprightly,
and worketh righteousness,
And, as he thinketh in his heart,
so doth he truth express.

3 Who doth not slander with his tongue,
nor to his friend doth hurt;
Nor yet against his neighbour doth
take up an ill report.

4 In whose eyes vile men are despis'd;
but those that God do fear
He honoureth: and changeth not,
though to his hurt he swear.

5 His coin puts not to usury,
nor take reward will he Against the guiltless. Who doth thus, shall never moved be.

PSAL. XVI.

L ord, keep me: for I trust in thee.
2 To God thus was my speech,
Thou art my Lord, and unto thee
my goodness doth not reach:

3 To saints on earth, to th' excellent,
where my delight's all plac'd.

4 Their sorrows shall be multiply'd,
to other gods that haste:

Of their drink-offerings of blood
I will no off'ring make;
Yea, neither I their very names
up in my lips will take.

5 God is of mine inheritance
and cup the portion:

The lot that fallen is to me,
thou dost maintain alone.

6 Unto me happily the lines
in pleasant places fell;

Yea, the inheritance I got,
in beauty doth excel.

7 I bless the Lord, because he doth
by counsel me conduct:
And, in the seasons of the night,
my reins do me instruct.

8 Before me still the Lord I set:
sith it is so that he

Doth ever stand at my right hand,
I shall not moved be.

9 Because of this my heart is glad,
and joy shall be express Ev'n by my glory: and my flesh
in confidence shall rest.

10 Because my soul in grave to dwell
shall not be left by thee;
Nor wilt thou give thine holy One corruption to see.

11 Thou wilt me shew the path of life
of joys there is full store
Before thy face, at thy right hand
are pleasures evermore.

PSAL. XVII.

L ord, hear the right, attend my cry,
unto my pray'r give heed,
That doth not in hypocrisy
from feigned lips proceed.

2 And from before thy presence forth
my sentence do thou send:
Toward these things that equal are,
do thou thine eyes intend.

3 Thou prov'dst mine heart, thou visit'st
by night, thou didst me try, [me
Yet nothing foundst; for that my mouth
shall not sin, purpos'd I.

4 As for mens works, I, by the word
that from thy lips doth flow, Did me preserve out of the paths
wherein destroyers go.

5 Hold up my goings, Lord, me guide
in these thy paths divine,
So that my footsteps may not slide
out of those ways of thine.

6 I called have on thee, O God,
because thou wilt me hear:
That thou may'st hearken to my speech,
to me incline thine ear.

7 Thy wondrous loving kindness show,
thou that, by thy right hand, Sav'st them that trust in thee, from those that up against them stand.

8 As th' apple of the eye me keep;
in thy wings shade me close:

9 From lewd oppressors, compassing
me round, as deadly foes.

10 In their own fat they are inclos'd,
their mouth speaks loftily.

11 Our steps they compass; and to ground
down bowing set their eye.

12 He like unto a lion is, that's greedy of his prey,
Or lion young, which lurking doth
in secret places stay.

13 Arise, and disappoint my foe,
and cast him down, O Lord:
My soul save from the wicked man,
the man which is thy sword. [Lord,

14 From men which are thy hand, O
from worldly men me save,
Which only in this present life
their part and portion have:

Whose belly with thy treasure hid thou fill'st: they children have
In plenty; of their goods the rest
they to their children leave.

PSALM XVIII.

5 But as for me ; I thine own face
in righteousness will see :
And with thy likeness, when I wake,
I satisfy'd shall be.

PSALM XVIII.

Thee will I love, O Lord, my strength.
2 My fortress is the Lord,
My rock, and he that doth to me
deliverance afford :
My God, my strength, whom I will trust,
a buckler unto me,
The horn of my salvation,
and my high tower is he.

3 Upon the Lord, who worthy is of praises, will I cry :
And then shall I preserved be safe from mine enemy.

4 Floods of ill men affrighted me,
death's pangs about me went.

5 Hell's sorrows me environed :
death's snares did me prevent.

6 In my distress I call'd on God,
cry to my God did I :

He from his temple heard my voice,
to his ears came my cry. [shake,

7 Th' earth, as affrighted, then did trembling upon it seiz'd ;
The hills foundations moved were,
because he was displeas'd.

8 Up from his nostrils came a smoke,
and from his mouth there came Devouring fire, and coals by it were turned into flame.

9 He also bowed down the heav'ns,
and thence he did descend :
And thickest clouds of darkness did under his feet attend.

10 And he upon a cherub rode,
and thereon he did fly :
Yea, on the swift wings of the wind
his flight was from on high.

11 He darkness made his secret place :
about him for his tent,
Dark waters were, and thickest clouds
of th' airy firmament.

12 And at the brightness of that light
which was before his eye,
His thick clouds past away, hail-stones
and coals of fire did fly.

13 The Lord God also in the heav'ns
did thunder in his ire ;
And there the Highest gave his voice,
hail-stones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he his arrows sent abroad,
and them he scattered ;
His lightnings also he shot out,
and them discomfited.

15 The waters channels then were seen,
the world's foundations vast,
At thy rebuke discover'd were,
and at thy nostrils blast.

16 And from above the Lord sent down,
and took me from below,
From many waters he me drew,
which would me overflow.

17 He me reliev'd from my strong foes,
and such as did me hate ;

Because he saw that they for me too strong were, and too great.

18 They me prevented in the day
of my calamity :

But even then the Lord himself
a stay was unto me.

19 He to a place, where liberty and room was, hath me brought :
Because he took delight in me,
he my deliverance wrought.

20 According to my righteousness
he did me recompense,
He me repaid according to my hands pure innocence. [God

21 For I God's ways kept, from nought
did not turn wickedly.

22 His judgments were before me, I
his laws put net from me.

23 Sincere before him was my heart,
with him upright was I :
And watchfully I kept myself
from mine iniquity.

24 After my righteousness the Lord
hath recompensed me,
After the cleanness of my hands
appearing in his eye.

25 Thou gracious to the gracious art,
to upright men upright. [kyth's

26 Pure to the pure, froward thou unto the froward wight.

27 For thou wilt the afflicted save,
in grief that low do ly :
But wilt bring down the countenance
of them whose looks are high.

28 The Lord will light my candle so,
that it shall shine full bright :
The Lord my God will also make my darkness to be light. [break,

29 By thee through troops of men I
and them discomfit all :
And, by my God assisting me,
I over-leap a wall.

30 As for God, perfect is his way ;
the Lord his word is try'd :
He is a buckler to all those who do in him confide.

31 Who but the Lord is God ? but he who is a rock and stay ? [strength

32 'Tis God that girdeth me with and perfect makes my way.

33 He made my feet swift as the hinds,
set me on my high places. [arms

34 Mine hands to war he taught, mine

Thy right hand held me up, and great thy kindness made me grow.

enlarged under me :

That I go safely, and my feet
are kept from sliding free.

37 Mine enemies I pursued hays,
and did them overtake :

Nor did I turn again, till I an end of them did make.

38 I wounded them, they could not rise,
they at my feet did fall.

39 Thou girdedst me with strength for war:
my foes thou brought'st down all.
40 And thou hast giv'n to me the necks
of all mine enemies:
That I might them destroy and slay
who did against me rise.

41 They cried out, but there was none
that would or could them save:
Yea, they did cry unto the Lord,
but he no answer gave.

42 Then did I beat them small as dust
before the wind that flies:
And I did cast them out like dirt
upon the street that lies.

43 Thou mad'st me free from people's

A people, whom I have not known,

the heathen folk among:
And to thy name, O Lord, I will sing praises in a song.

To David, his anointed one,

MY God, my God, why hast thou me
forfaken? why so far

Art thou from helping me, and from

And in the season of the night
I cannot silent be.

and thou didst them release.

to them deliv'rance came :

Because they put their trust in thee,
they were not put to shame.

6 But as for me, a worm I am,
and as no man am priz'd :

Reproach of men I am, and by the people am despis'd.

7 All that me see, laugh me to scorn ;
shoot out the lip do they,

They nod and shake their heads at me,
and mocking, thus do say,

8 This man did trust in God, that he would free him by his might :

Let him deliver him, fith he had in him such delight.

that didst me safely take :

When I was on my mother's breasts,
thou me to hope didst make.

And from my mother's belly, Lord,
my God and guide art thou.

In their assembly, me inclos'd,
they pierc'd my hands and feet.

My vows, before them that him fear,

All kindreds of the nations

The knowledge of his covenant

continually are set:
For he it is that shall bring forth
my feet out of the net.

P S A L. XXXI, XXXII.

Weeping may for a night endure,

6 In my prosperity I said,
that nothing shall me move.
7 O Lord, thou hast my mountain made to stand strong by thy love:

But when that thou, O gracious God,
didst hide thy face from me,
Then quickly was my prosperous state
turn'd into misery.

8 Wherefore unto the Lord my cry
I caused to ascend:
My humble supplication
I to the Lord did send.

9 What profit is there in my blood,
when I go down to pit?
Shall unto thee the dust give praise?
thy truth declare shall it? [Lord.

10 Hear, Lord, have mercy, help me,
11 Thou turnedst my sadness
To dancing; yea, my sackcloth loos'd,
and girded me with gladness.

12 That sing thy praise, my glory may

O Lord my God, for evermore
I will give thanks to thee.

P S A L. XXXI.

I N thee, O Lord, I put my trust,
I shan'd let me never be:
According to thy righteousness
do thou deliver me.

2 Bow down thine ear to me, with speed
send me deliverance:
To save me, my strong rock be thou,
and my house of defence.

3 Because thou art my rock, and thee
I for my fortress take:
Therefore do thou me lead and guide,
ev'n for thine own name's sake.

4 And sith thou art my strength, there-pull me out of the net, [fore
Which they in subtilty for me
so privily have set.

5 Into thine hands, I do commit
my spirit; for thou art he,
O thou Jehovah, God of truth,
that hast redeemed me.

6 Those that do lying vanities
regard, I have abhorr'd:
But as for me, my confidence
is fixed on the Lord.

7 I'll in thy mercy gladly joy:
for thou my misery
Consider'd hast; thou hast my soul
known in adversities.

8 And thou hast not inclosed me
within the enemies hand;
And by thee have my feet been made in a large room to stand.

9 O Lord, upon me mercy have,
for trouble is on me:
Mine eye, my belly, and my soul
with grief consumed be.

10 Because my life with grief is spent,
my years with sighs and groans:
My strength doth fail; and for my sin consumed are my bones.

11 I was a scorn to all my foes,
and to my friends a fear:
And specially reproach'd of those that were my neighbours near:
When they me saw, they from me fled,
12 Ev'n so I am forgot,
As men are out of mind when dead:
I'm like a broken pot.

13 For slanders I of many heard,
fear compass'd me, while they Against me did consult, and plot
to take my life away.

14 But as for me, O Lord, my trust
upon thee I did lay:
And I to thee, Thou art my God,
did confidently say.

15 My times are wholly in thine hand,
do thou deliver me
From their hands, that mine enemies and persecutors be.

16 Thy countenance to shine do thou upon thy servant make:
Unto me give salvation,
for thy great mercies sake.

17 Let me not be ashamed, O Lord,
for on thee call'd I have;
Let wicked men be ashamed, let them
be silent in the grave.

18 To silence put the lying lips,
that grievous things do say,
And hard reports, in pride, and scorn,
on righteous men do lay.

From strife of tongues thou closely shalt

21 All praise and thanks be to the Lord,
for he hath magnify'd
His wondrous love to me, within a city fortify'd.

22 For from thine eyes cut off I am,
(I in my haste had said)
My voice yet heardst thou, when to thee
with cries my moan I made.

23 O love the Lord, all ye his saints;
because the Lord doth guard
The faithful, and he plentifully proud doers doth reward.

unto your heart shall send,
All ye whose hope and confidence
doth on the Lord depend.

is freely pardoned
All the transgression he hath done,
whose sin is covered.

imputeth not his sin,
And in whose spirit there is no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

So that my moisture turned is my sin acknowledged,

And likewise mine iniquity
I have not covered:
I will confess unto the Lord
my trespasses, said I;
And of my sin thou freely didst

his prayer make to thee,
In such a time he shall thee seek,
as fount thou mayest be.
Surely, when floods of waters great

They shall not overwhelm his soul,
nor once come near to him.

from trouble keep me free:
Thou, with songs of deliverance,

to see good would live long?

pursue it earnestly.

PLead Lord, with those that plead,
with those that fight with me.

against them stop the way,

That me pursue: unto my soul,
I'm thy salvation, say.

4 Let them confounded be, and sham'd,
that for my soul have fought: [they,

Who plot my hurt, turn'd back be
and to confusion brought.

And let the angel of the Lord

6 With darkness cover thou their way,
and let it slip 'ry prove,

And let the angel of the Lord
pursue them from above:

7 For, without cause, have they for me
their net hid in a pit,

They also have, without a cause,
for my soul digged it.

8 Let ruin seize him unawares,
his net he hid withal

Himself let catch; and in the same destruction let him fall.

9 My soul in God shall joy; and glad in his salvation be.

10 And all my bones shall say, O Lord,
who is like unto thee,

Which dost the poor set free from him
that is for him too strong;

The poor and needy, from the man
that spoils and doo' him wrong?

11 False witnesses rose; to my charge
things I not knew they laid.

12 They, to the spoiling of my soul,
me ill for good repaid.

13 But as for me, when they were sick,
in sackcloth sad I mourn'd:

My humbled soul did fast, my pray'r
into my bosom turn'd.

14 Myself I did behave, as he had been my friend or brother:

I heavily bow'd down, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in my trouble they rejoic'd,
gath'ring themselves together;

Yea, abjects vile together did themselves against me gather:

I knew it not, they did me tear,
and quiet would not be.

16 With mocking hypocrites, at feasts
they gnaw'd their teeth at me.

And, where much people gather'd are,
thy praises forth will set.

proudly rejoice o'er me:

Nor, who me hate without a cause,
let them wink with the eye.

25 Thy righteousness shall also be declared by my tongue;
The praises that belong to thee,

PSAL. XXXVI.

THe wicked man's transgression
within my heart thus says, Undoubtedly the fear of God
is not before his eyes.

2 Because himself he flattereth
in his own blinded eyes;
Until the hatefulnes be found
of his iniquity.

3 Words from his mouth proceeding are,
fraud and iniquity:
He to be wife, and to do good,
hath left off utterly.

4 He mischief, lying on his bed,
most cunningly doth plot;
He sets himself in ways not good,
ill he abhorreth not.

5 Thy mercy, Lord, is in the heav'n;
thy truth doth reach the clouds.

6 Thy justice is like mountains great;
thy judgments deep as floods:

Lord, thou preservest man and beast.

7 How precious is the grace!
Therefore, in shadow of thy wings
mens sons their trust shall place.

8 They with the fatness of thy house
shall be well satisfy'd;
From rivers of thy pleasures thou wilt drink to them provide.

9 Because of life the fountain pure remains alone with thee:

And in that purest light of thine
we clearly light shall see.

10 Thy loving kindness unto them
continue that thee know;

And still on men upright in heart
thy righteousness bestow.

11 Let not the foot of cruel pride
come, and against me stand:

And let me not removed be,
Lord, by the wicked's hand.

12 There fall'n are they, and ruined,
that work iniquities:

Cast down they are, and never shall be able to arise.

PSAL. XXXVII.

For evil doers fret thou not thyself unquietly;
Nor do thou envy bear to those
that work iniquity.

2 For, even like unto the grass,
soon he cut down shall they:
And, like the green and tender herb
they wither shall away.

3 Set thou thy trust upon the Lord,
and be thou doing good;
And so thou in the land shalt dwell,
and verily have food.

4 Delight thyself in God, he'll give thine heart's desire to thee.

5 Thy way to God commit: him trust,
it bring to pass shall he.

6 And, like unto the light, he shall thy righteousness display,

And he thy judgment shall bring forth:
like noon-tide of the day.

7 Rest in the Lord, and patiently
wait for him: do not fret

For him, who prosp'ring in his way, success in sin doth get.

8 Do thou from anger cease, and wrath
see thou forsake also:

Fret not thyself in any wife,
that evil thou should'st do.

9 For those that evil doers are,
shall be cut off, and fall:

But those that wait upon the Lord,
the earth inherit shall.

10 For yet a little while, and then the wicked shall not be;

His place thou shalt consider well,
but it thou shalt not see.

11 But by inheritance the earth
the meek ones shall possess:

They also shall delight themselves
in an abundant peace.

and at him whets his teeth.

Their bows, which they have bent,

16 A little that a just man hath,

Than is the wealth of many such as lewd and wicked are.

but God the just sustains. (and still 18 God knows the just man's days, their heritage remains. (they 29 They shall not be ashamed, when the evil time do see;

And when the days of famine are,
they satisfy'd shall be.

20 But wicked men, and foes of God,
as fat of lambs decay,

They shall consume, yea, into smoke
they shall consume away.

21 The wicked borrows, but the same
again he doth not pay;

Whereas the righteous mercy shows,
and gives his own away.

22 For such as blessed be of him
the earth inherit shall;

And they that cursed are of him
shall be destroyed all.

23 A good man's footsteps by the Lord
are ordered aright:

And in the way wherein he walks,
he greatly doth delight.

24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be cast down utterly:

Because the Lord, with his own hand,
upholds him mightily.

As nothing: sure each man at best is wholly vanity.

Sure each man walks in a vain show,
they vex themselves in vain:
He heaps up wealth, and doth not know
to whom it shall pertain.

And now, O Lord, what wait I for?
my hope is fix'd on thee.

PSAL. XL.

I waited for the Lord my God,
and patiently did bear;

At length to me he did incline
my voice and cry to hear.

He took me from a fearful pit,
and from the miry clay,

And on a rock he set my feet,
establishing my way.

He put a new song in my mouth,
our God to magnify:

Many shall see it, and shall fear,
and on the Lord rely.

O blest is the man whose trust
upon the Lord relies:

Respecting not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

O Lord my God, full many are
the wonders thou hast done;

Thy gracious thoughts to us-ward far above all thoughts are gone:

In order none can reckon them
to thee: if them declare,

And speak of them I would, they more than can be numbered are.

No sacrifice, nor offering
didst thou at all desire,

Mine ears thou bor'd: sin-offering thou

Then to the Lord these were my
I come, behold and see:

Within the volume of thy book
it written is of me:

To do thy will I take delight,
O thou my God that art:

Yea, that most holy law of thine
I have within my heart.

9 Within the congregation great
I righteousness did preach:

Lo, thou dost know, O Lord, that I refrain'd not my speech.

10 I never did within my heart
conceal thy righteousness:

I thy salvation have declar'd,
and shown thy faithfulness:

Thy kindness, which most loving is,
concealed have not I,

Nor from the congregation great
have hid thy verity.

11 Thy tender mercies, Lord, from me
O do thou not refrain:

Thy loving kindness, and thy truth,
let them me still maintain.

12 For ill's past reckon compass me,
and mine iniquities

Such hold upon me taken have,
I cannot lift mine eyes:

They more than hairs are on mine head,
thence is my heart dismay'd.

13 Be pleas'd, Lord, to rescue me:
Lord, hasten to mine aid.

14 Sham'd and confounded be they all that seek my soul to kill:

Yea, let them backward driven be,
and sham'd, that wish me ill.

15 For a reward of this their shame,
confounded let them be,

That in this manner scoffing say,
Aha, sha to me.

16 In thee let all be glad, and joy,
who seeking thee abide:

Whose thy salvation love, say still,
The Lord be magnify'd.

17 I'm poor and needy, yet the Lord
of me a care doth take:

Thou art my help and saviour,
my God, no tarrying make.

PSAL. XLI.

Bless'd is he that wisely doth
the poor man's case consider;

For when the time of trouble is,
the Lord will him deliver.

2 God will him keep; yea, save alive,
on earth he blest shall live;

And to his enemies desire thou wilt him not up give.

3 God will give strength, when he on of languishing doth mourn: (bed

And, in his sickness sore, O Lord,
thou all his bed wilt turn.

4 I said, O Lord, do thou extend
thy mercy unto me;

O do thou heal my soul, for why,
I have offended thee.

5 Those that to me are enemies
of me do evil say,

When shall he die, that so his name
may perish quite away?

6 To see me if he comes, he speaks vain words: but then his heart

Heaps mischief to it, which he tells,
when forth he doth depart.

PSALM XLII, XLIII, XLIV.

10 But, Lord, be merciful to me,
and up again me raise,
That I may justly them requite
according to their ways.

11 By this I know, that certainly
I favour'd am by thee:
Because my hateful enemy
triumphs not over me.

12 But as for me, thou me uphold'st
in mine integrity:

And me before thy countenance
thou set'st continually.

13 The Lord, the God of Israel,
be blest for ever then,
From age to age eternally.
Amen yea, and amen.

PSALM XLII.

Like as the hart for water-brooks
in thirst doth pant and bray;
So pants my longing soul, O God,
that come to thee I may.

2 My soul for God, the living God,
doth thirst; when shall I near Unto thy countenance approach,
and in God's sight appear?

3 My tears have unto me been meat,
both in the night and day,
While unto me continually,
Where is thy God? they say.

4 My soul is poured out in me,
when this I think upon;
Because that with the multitude
I heretofore had gone?

With them into God's house I went,
with voice of joy and praise;
Yea, with the multitude that kept
the solemn holy days

5 O why art thou cast down, my soul?
why in me so dismay'd?
Trust God, for I shall praise him yet,
his count'nance is mine aid.

6 My God, my soul's cast down is me:
thee therefore mind I will
From Jordan's land, the Hermonit's, and ev'n from Mizar'hill.

7 At the noise of thy water-spouts deep unto deep doth call Thy breaking waves pass over me,
yea, and thy billows all.

8 His loving kindness yet the Lord
command will in the day.
His song's with me by night, to God,
by whom I live, I'll pray.

9 And I will say to God my rock,
Why me forget'st thou so?
Why, for my foes oppression,
thus mourning do I go?

10 'Tis as a sword within my bone
when my foes me upbraid:

Ev'n when by them, Where is thy God,
'is daily to me said.

11 O why art thou cast down, my soul,
why, thus with grief oppress'd,
Art thou disquieted in me?
in God still hope and rest;

For yet I know I shall him praise,
who graciously to me
The health is of my countenance,
yea, mine own God is he.

PSALM XLIII.

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause
against th' ungodly nation:
From the unjust and crafty man,
O be thou my salvation.

2 For thou the God art of my strength,
why thrusts thou me thee fro?
For th' enemy's oppression
why do I mourning go?

3 O send thy light forth, and thy truth;
let them be guides to me,
And bring me to thine holy hill,
ev'n where thy dwellings be.

4 Then will I to God's altar go,
to God my chiefest joy:
Yea, God, my God, thy name to praise
my harp I will employ.

5 Why art thou then cast down, my what should discourage thee? (soul?
And why, with vexing thoughts, art disquieted in me? (thou Still trust in God, for him to praise
good cause I yet shall have:
He of my count'nance is the health,
my God that doth me save.

PSALM XLIV.

O God, we with our ears have heard,
our fathers have us told, (done,
What works thou in their days had'st
ev'n in the days of old.

2 Thy hand did drive the heathen out,
and plant them in their place;
Thou did'st afflict the nations,
but them thou did'st increase.

3 For neither got their sword the land,
nor did their arm them save:
But thy right hand, arm, countenance;
for thou them favour gave.

4 Thou art my King: for Jacob, Lord, deliv'rances command. (our foes,
5 Through thee we shall push down
that do against us stand

We, through thy name, shall tread down that ris'n against us have. (those

6 For in my bow I shall not trust,
nor shall my sword me save.

7 But from our foes thou hast us sav'd,
our haters put to shame.

8 In God we all the day do boast,
and ever praise thy name.

9 But now we are cast off by thee,
and us thou put'st to shame:
And, when our armies do go forth,
thou go'st not with the same.

10 Thou mak'st us from the enemy
faint-hearted to turn back:
And they who hate us, for themselves
our spoils away do take.

11 Like

PSAL. XLV.

- 11 Like sheep for meat thou gavest us:
Among heathen cast we be.
12 Thou dost for nought thy people sell,
their price enrich'd not thee.
13 Thou mak'st us a reproach to be unto our neighbours near;
Derision, and a scorn to them
that round about us are.
14 A by-word also thou dost us
among the heathen make:
The people, in contempt and spite,
at us their heads do shake.
15 Before me my confusion
continually abides;
And of my shameful countenance
the shame me ever hides.
16 For voice of him that doth reproach,
and speaketh blasphemy;
By reason of th' avenging foe,
and cruel enemy.
17 All this is come on us, yet we have not forgotten thee;
Nor falsly in thy covenant
behav'd ourselves have we. (turn'd;
18 Back from thy way our heart not our steps no straying made. (place, 19 Though us thou break'st in dragons
and cover'st with death's shade.
20 If we God's name forgot, or stretcht
to a strange god our hands:
21 Shall not God search this out? for he hearts secrets understands.
22 Yea, for thy sake we're kill'd all day,
counted as slaughter-sheep.
23 Rise, Lord, cast us not ever off,
awake; why dost thou sleep?
24 O wherefore hidest thou thy face?
forget'st our case distress,
25 And our oppressions: For our soul
is to the dust down prest:
Our belly also on the earth,
fast cleaving hold doth take.
25 Rise for our help, and us redeem,
ev'n for thy mercies sake.

PSAL. XLV.

- MY heart brings forth a goodly
my works that I indite (thing; Concern the king: my tongue's a pen
of one that swift doth write.
2 Thou fairer art than sons of men:
into thy lips is store
Of grace infus'd; God therefore thee
hath blest for evermore.
3 O thou that art the mighty One,
thy sword gird on thy thigh:
Ev'n with thy glory excellent,
and with thy majesty. (ness,
4 For meekness, truth, and righteousness
in state ride prosperously;
And thy right hand shall thee instruct,
in things that fearful be.
5 Thine arrows sharply pierce the of th' enemies of the king; (hearts And under thy subjection
the people down do bring.
6 For ever and for ever is,
O God, thy throne of might:

- The sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre that is right.
7 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill;
for God, thy God most high;
Above thy fellows hath with th' oil
of joy, anointed thee.
8 Of aloes, myrrh, and cassia,
a smell thy garments had:
Out of th' ivory palaces,
whereby they made thee glad.
9 Among thy women honourable kings daughters were at hand:
Upon thy right hand did the queen
in gold of Ophir stand.
10 O daughter, hearken and regard,
and so thine ear incline;
Likewise forget thy father's house,
and people that are thine.
11 'Then of the king desire shall be thy beauty vehemently:
Because he is thy Lord, do thou
him worship reverently.
12 The daughter here of Tyre shall be,
with gifts and off'rings great:
Those of the people that are rich,
thy favour shall intreat.
13 Behold the daughter of the king
all glorious is within;
And with embroideries of gold,
her garments wrought have been.
14 She shall be brought unto the king,
in robes with needle wrought:
Her fellow virgins following,
shall unto thee be brought.
15 They shall be brought with gladness
and mirth on ev'ry side. (great,
Into the palace of the king,
and there they shall abide.
16 In stead of those thy fathers dear,
thy children thou may'st take,
And in all places of the earth
them noble princes make.
17 Thy name remembred I will make through ages all to be:
The people therefore evermore
shall praises give to thee.

Another of the same.

- MY heart inditing is a good matter in a song:
I speak the things that I have made,
which to the king belong:
My tongue shall be as quick,
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe
that useth fast to write.
2 Thou'rt fairest of all men,
grace in thy lips doth flow:
And therefore blessings evermore
on thee doth God bestow.
3 Thy sword gird on thy thigh,
thou that art most of might:
Appear in dreadful majesty,
and in thy glory bright.
4 For meekness, truth and right,
ride prosperously in state:
And thy right hand shall teach to thee things terrible and great.

PSAL. XLVI, XLVII, XLVIII.

5 Thy shafts shall pierce their hearts
that foes are to the king, Whereby into subjection
the people thou shalt bring.

6 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
The sceptre of thy kingdom doth
all righteousness maintain.

7 Thou lov'st right, and hat'st ill:
for God, thy God most high Above thy fellows hath with th' oil
of joy anointed thee.

8 Of myrrh and spices sweet
a smell thy garments had:
Out of the iv'ry palaces
whereby they made thee glad.

9 And in thy glorious train
kings daughters waiting stand:
And thy fair queen, in Ophir gold,
doth stand at thy right hand.

10 O daughter, take good heed,
incline, and give good ear;
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and father's house most dear.

11 Thy beauty to the king
shall then delightful be:
And do thou humbly worship him,
because thy Lord is he.

12 The daughter then of Tyre
there with a gift shall be,
And all the wealthy of the land
shall make their suit to thee.
13 The daughter of the king
all glorious is within;
And with embroideries of gold,
her garments wrought have been.

14 She cometh to the king
in robes with needle wrought:
The virgins that do follow her
shall unto thee be brought.
15 They shall be brought with joy,
and mirth on ev'ry side,
Into the palace of the king,
and there they shall abide.

16 And in thy father's stead,
thy children thou may'st take,
And, in all places of the earth,
them noble princes make.

17 I will shew forth thy name
to generations all:
Therefore the people evermore
to thee give praises shall.

Though hills amidst the sea be cast.

3 Though waters roaring make,
And troubled be; yea, though the hills
by swelling seas do shake.

4 A river is, whose streams do glad
the city of our God:
The holy place, wherein the Lord
most high hath his abode.

5 God in the midst of her doth dwell:
nothing shall her remove

The Lord to her an helper will,
and that right early, prove.

6 The heathen rag'd tumultuously,
the kingdoms moved were:

The Lord God uttered his voice,
the earth did melt for fear.

7 The Lord of hosts upon our side
doth constantly remain:
The God of Jacob's our refuge,
us safely to maintain.

8 Come, and behold what wondrous have by the Lord been wrought:
Come, see what desolations
he on the earth hath brought.

9 Unto the ends of all the earth
wars into peace he turns,
The bow he breaks, the spear he cuts,
in fire the chariot burns.

10 Be still, and know that I am God:
among the heathen I Will be exalted, I on earth
will be exalted high.

11 Our God, who is the Lord of hosts,
is still upon our side:
The God of Jacob our refuge
for ever will abide.

PSAL. XLVII.

All people clap your hands, to God
with voice of triumph shout.

2 For dreadful is the Lord most high,
great King the earth throughout.

3 The heathen people under us
he surely shall subdue:
And he shall make the nations
under our feet to bow.

4 The lot of our inheritance
choose out for us shall he,
Of Jacob whom he loved well,
ev'n the excellency.

5 God is with shouts gone up, the Lord
with trumpets sounding high.

6 Sing praise to God, sing praise, sing
praise to our King sing ye. [praise,

7 For God is King of all the earth,
with knowledge praise express.

8 God rules the nations, God sits on his throne of holiness.

assembled willingly;
Ev'n of the God of Abraham

For why? the shields that do defend the earth, are only his;
They to the Lord belong: yea, he exalted greatly is.

PSAL. XLVIII.

Great is the Lord, and greatly he is to be praised still,
Within the city of our God,
upon his holy hill.

2 Mount Zion stands most beautiful,
the joy of all the land;
The city of the mighty King
on her north-side doth stand.

3 The Lord within her palaces
is for a refuge known.

4 For lo, the kings that gather'd were together by have gone.

PSAL. XLIX, L.

5 But when they did behold the same
they wond'ring would not stay:
But, being troubled at the sight,
they thence did haste away.

they were possess'd with fear,
Their grief came like a woman's pain,
When she a child doth bear. [break't:]

Lord, in thy temple still.

10 O Lord, according to thy name,
through all the earth's thy praise:

And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness always.

Of Judah let the daughters all send forth a cheerful voice.

the high tow'rs thereof tell.

and mark her bulwarks well;

Our God for evermore, he will
ev'n unto death us guide.

PSAL. XLIX.

Hear this all people, and give ear,
all in the world that dwell:

2 Both low and high, both rich and poor.

3 My mouth shall wisdom tell:
My heart shall knowledge meditate.

4 I will incline mine ear
To parables, and on the harp
my sayings dark declare.

5 Amidst those days that evil be,
why should I, fearing, doubt?

When of my heel th' iniquity

6 Whoe'er they be that in their wealth
their confidence do pitch,

And boast themselves, because they are

Nor can he unto God for him

when death his days doth end:

Nor shall his glory after him
into the grave descend.

THE mighty God, the Lord

The earth from rising of the sun,
to where he hath his fall.

And to the earth likewise, that he

thy mother's son dost shame. [speak'st,

while thou these things hast wrought;
That I was altogether like

Yet I will thee reprove,

For earth, and all its fulness, doth

To the most High perform thy word,

I will deliver thee, and thou
my name shalt glorify.

with truth delighted art;
And wisdom thou shalt make me know

Yea, wash thou me, and then I shall

10 In God his word I'll praise, his in God shall praised be.

11 In God I trust, I will not fear
what man can do to me.

12 Thy vows upon me are, O God
I'll render praise to thee.

13 Wilt thou not, who from dear
my feet from falls keep free, [f
To walk before God in the light of those that living be?

BE merciful to me, O God,
thy mercy unto me
Do thou extend, because my soul
doth put her trust in thee;
Yea, in the shadow of thy wings
my refuge I will place, Until these sad calamities
do wholly overpass.

2 My cry I will cause to ascend unto the Lord most high,
To God, who doth all things for me
perform most perfectly. [me 3 From heav'n he shall send down, and from his reproach defend,
That would devour me: God his truth
and mercy forth shall send.

4 My soul among fierce lions is,
I firebrands live among, [darts, Mens' sons, whose teeth are spears and
a sharp sword is their tongue.
Be thou exalted very high above the heav'ns, O God;
Let thou thy glory be advanc'd
o'er all the earth abroad.

5 My soul's bow'd down: for they a net
have laid, my steps to snare:
Into the pit which they have digg'd
for me, they fallen are.

6 My heart is fixt, my heart is fixt,
O God, I'll sing and praise.
My glory, wake, wake psalt'ry, harp;
myself I'll early raise.

7 I'll praise thee 'mong the people,
'mong nations sing will I: [Lord, 8 For great to heav'n thy mercy is,
thy truth is to the sky.

9 O Lord, exalted be thy name,
above the heav'ns to stand:
Do thou thy glory far advance
above both sea and land.

PSAL. LVIII.

DO ye, O congregation,
indeed speak righteousness?
Ye that are the sons of men,
Judge ye with uprightness?
Yea, ev'n within your very hearts
ye wickedness have done;
and ye the violence of your hands
do weigh the earth upon.

The wicked men estranged are
ev'n from the very womb;
they speaking lies do stray, as soon
as to the world they come.
Unto a serpent's poison like
their poison doth appear;
ea, they are like the adder deaf,
that clofly stops her ear:

That so she may not hear the voice
of one that charin her would,
so not though he most cunning were,
and charm most wisely could.

the great teeth break thou out, O Lord,

Let them like waters melt away,
which downward still do flow:

when he shall bend his bow.

8 Like to a snail that melts away,
let each of them be gone;
Like woman's birth untimely, that

The righteous one shall wash his feet

a God to judge there is.

PSAL. LIX.

MY God, deliver me from those
that are mine enemies;
And do thou me defend from those
that up against me rise.

2 Do thou deliver me from them
that work iniquity;
And give me safety from the men
of bloody cruelty.

3 For lo, they for my soul lay wait:
the mighty do combine Against me, Lord, not for my fault,
nor any sin of mine.

4 They run, and, without fault in me,
themselves do ready make:
Awake to meet me with thy help,
and do thou notice take.

5 Awake therefore, Lord God of hosts,
thou God of Israel,
To visit heathen all: spare none
that wickedly rebel.

6 At ev'ning they go to and fro:
they make great noise and sound,
Like to a dog, and often walk
about the city round.

For they do say thus, Who is he
that now doth hear our words?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them,
and all the heathen mock.

9 While he's in power, I'll wait on thee:
for God is my high rock.

10 He of my mercy that is God, betimes shall me prevent:
Upon mine enemies God shall let me see mine hearts content.

11 Them slay not, lest my folk forget;
but scatter them abroad [down,
By thy strong pow'r, and bring them
O thou our shield, and God.

PSAL. LX, LXI, LXII.

- 14 At evening let thou them return,
making great noise and sound
Like to a dog, and often walk
about the city round.
15 And let them wander up and down,
in seeking food to eat; (not And let them grudge, when they shall be satisfy'd with meat.
16 But of thy pow'r I'll sing aloud,
at morn thy mercy praise:
For thou to me my refuge wast,
and tow'r in troublous days.
17 O God, thou art my strength, I will
sing praises unto thee;
For God is my defence, a God
of mercy unto me.

PSAL. LX.

- O Lord, thou hast rejected us,
and scatter'd us abroad,
Thou justly hast displeased been;
return to us, O God.
2 The earth to tremble thou hast made,
therein didst breaches make:
Do thou thereof the breaches heal,
because the land doth shake.
3 Unto thy people thou hard things
hast shew'd, and on them sent;
And thou hast caused us to drink
wine of astonishment.
4 And yet a banner thou hast giv'n
to them who do thee fear:
That it by them, because of truth,
dislayed may appear.
5 That thy beloved people may
deliver'd be from thrall;
Save with the pow'r of thy right hand,
and hear me when I call.
6 God in his holiness hath spoke,
herein I will take pleasure:
Shechem I will divide, and forth
will Succoth's valley measure.
7 Gilead I claim as mine by right,
Manasseh mine shall be;
Ephraim is of mine head the strength,
Judah gives laws for me.
8 Moab's my washing-pot, my shoe
I'll over Edom throw;
And over Palestina's land
I will in triumph go.
9 Who is he will bring me to the city fortify'd?
Who is he that to the land
of Edom will me guide?
10 O God, which hadest us cast off,
this thing wilt thou not do?
Ev'n thou, O God, which didest not
forth with our armies go.
11 Help us from trouble: for the help
is vain which man supplies.
12 Through God we'll do great acts; he tread down our enemies. (shall

PSAL. LXI.

- O God, give ear unto my cry,
unto my pray'r attend.
2 From th' utmost corner of the land
my cry to thee I'll send,
What time my heart is overwhelm'd,
and in perplexity:

Do thou me lead unto the rock
that higher is than I.

- 3 For thou hast for my refuge been
a shelter by thy pow'r,
And, for defence against my foes,
thou hast been a strong tow'r.
4 Within thy tabernacle I
for ever will abide:
And, under covert of thy wings,
with confidence me hide.
5 For thou the vows that I did make,
O Lord my God, didst hear:
Thou hast giv'n me the heritage
of those thy name that fear.
6 A life prolong'd for many days thou to the king shalt give:
Like many generations be
the years which he shall live.
7 He in God's presence his abode
for evermore shall have:
O do thou truth and mercy both prepare that may him save.
8 And so will I perpetually
sing praise unto thy name;
That, having made my vows, I may each day perform the same.

PSAL. LXII.

- MY soul with expectation
depends on God indeed:
My strength and my salvation doth
from him alone proceed.
2 He only my salvation is,
and my strong rock is he:
He only is my sure defence,
much mov'd I shall not be.
3 How long will ye against a man
plot mischief? ye shall all be slain, ye as a tott'ring fence
shall be, and bowing wall.
4 They only plot to cast him down
from his excellency; (bless,
They joy in lies; with mouth they
but they curse inwardly.
5 My soul, wait thou with patience
upon thy God alone:
On him dependeth all my hope
and expectation.
6 He only my salvation is,
and my strong rock is he;
He only is my sure defence:
I shall not moved be.
7 In God my glory placed is,
and my salvation sure:
In God the rock is of my strength,
my refuge most secure.
8 Ye people, place your confidence
in him continually;
Before him pour ye out your heart:
God is our refuge high.
9 Surely mean men are vanity,
and great men are a ly:
In balance laid, they wholly a re
more light than vanity.
10 Trust ye not in oppression,
in robb'ry be not vain;
On wealth set not your hearts, when as increased is your gain.

P S A L. LXIII, LXIV, LXV, LXVI.

17 God hath it spoken once to me,
yea, this I heard again,
That power to almighty God alone doth appertain.
12 Yea, mercy also unto thee
belongs, O Lord alone:
For thou according to his work
rewardest ev'ry one.

P S A L. LXIII.

L ord, thee my God I'll early seek:
my soul doth thirst for thee,
My flesh longs in a dry parch'd land,
wherein no waters be.
2 That I thy power may behold,
and brightness of thy face,
As I have seen thee heretofore,
within thy holy place.
3 Since better is thy love than life,
my lips thee praise shall give.
4 I in thy name will lift my hands,
and blest thee while I live.
5 Ev'n as with marrow and with fat,
my soul shall filled be;
Then shall my mouth with joyful lips,
sing praises unto thee.

6 When I do thee upon my bed
remember with delight,
And when on thee I meditate,
in watches of the night.
7 In shadow of thy wings I'll joy,
for thou mine help hast been.
8 My soul thee follows hard; and me
thy right hand doth sustain.
9 Who seek my soul to spill, shall sink
down to earth's lowest room.
10 They by the sword shall be cut off,
and foxes prey become.
11 Yet shall the king in God rejoice,
and each one glory shall
That swear by him: but Aopt shall be the mouth of liars all.

P S A L. LXIV.

W hen I to thee my prayer make,
Lord, to my voice give ear;
My life save from the enemy
of whom I stand in fear.
2 Me from their secret counsel hide,
who do live wickedly;
From insurrection of those men
that work iniquity.
3 Who do their tongues with malice (whet,
and make them cut like swords;
In whose bent bows are arrows set,

in secret aim their shot;
Yea, suddenly they dare at him
to shoot, and fear it not.
5 In ill encourage they themselves:
and their snares close do lay:
Together conference they have,
Who shall them see? they say.
6 They have search'd out iniquities,
a perfect search they keep:
Of each of them the inward thought,
and very heart is deep.

God shall an arrow shoot at them,
and wound them suddenly.

8 So their own tongue shall them con-
all who them see shall see. (found, 9 And on all men a fear shall fall,
God's works they shall declare;
For they shall wisely notice take what these his doings are.

10 In God the righteous shall rejoice,
and trust upon his might;
Yea, they shall greatly glory all;
in heart that are upright.

P S A L. LXV.

P raise waits for thee in Zion, Lord,

2 O thou that hearer art of pray'r,

But as for our transgressions,
them purge away shalt thou.

And with the goodness of thy house,

By fearful works unto our pray'r
thine answer dost expreis:
Therefore the ends of all the earth,
and those afar that be Upon the sea, their confidence,
O Lord, will place in thee.

her furrows settlest,
With show'r's thou dost her mollify,
her spring by thee is blest.

dost with thy goodness crown;
And all thy paths abundantly
on us drop fatness down.
12 They drop upon the pastures wide,
that do in deserts ly:
The little hills on ev'ry side

Desires to dwell; yea, God in it

17 God's chariots twenty thousand are,
thousands of angels strong;

And in triumph victorious led

Thou hast received gifts for men,
for such as did rebel;

Yea, ev'n for them, that God the Lord
in midst of them might dwell.

19 Bless'd be the Lord, who is to us
of our salvation God,

Who daily with his benefits

20 He of salvation is the God,
who is our God most strong;

And unto God the Lord from death

The hairy scalp of him that still

PSALM. LXIX.

SAVE me, O God, because the floods
do so environ me,

That ev'n into my very soul
come in the waters be.

2 I downward in deep mire do sink,
where standing there is none:

I am into deep waters come,
where floods have o'er me gone.

3 I weary with my crying am,
my throat is also dry'd,

Mine eyes do fail, while for my God
I waiting do abide.

4 Those men that do without a cause
bear hatred unto me,

Than are the hairs upon my head
in number more they be:

They that would me destroy, and are
mine en'mies wrongfully,

Are mighty: so what I took not to render forc'd was I.

5 Lord, thou my folly know'st, my sins
not cover'd are from thee.

6 Let none that wait on thee be sham'd,
Lord God of hosts, for me.

7 O Lord the God of Israel,
let none, who search do make,

And seek thee, be at any time
confounded for my sake.

8 For I have born reproach for thee,
my face is hid with shame.

9 To brethren strange, to mother's sons
an alien I became.

10 Because the zeal did eat me up,
which to thine house I bare;

And the reproaches cast at thee,
upon me fallen are.

11 My tears and fasts t' afflict my soul,
were turned to my shame.

PSAL. LXX, LXXI.

11 When sackcloth I did wear, to them
a proverb I became.

12 The men that in the gate do sit against me evil spake;
They also that vile drunkards were,
of me their song did make.

13 But, in an acceptable time,
my prayer, Lord, is to thee:
In truth of thy salvation, Lord,
and mercy great, hear me.

14 Deliver me out of the mire,
from sinking do me keep;
Free me from those that do me hate,
and from the waters deep.

15 Let not the flood on me prevail,
whose water overflows;
Nor deep me swallow, nor the pit
her mouth upon me close.

16 Hear me, O Lord, because thy love
and kindness is most good;
Turn unto me, according to thy mercies multitude.

17 Nor from thy servant hide thy face;
I'm troubled, soon at end.

18 Draw near my soul, and it redeem;
me from my foes defend.

19 To thee is my reproach well known,
my shame, and my disgrace:
Those that mine adversaries be
are all before thy face. (full)

20 Reproach hath broke my heart, I'm of grief; I look'd for one
To pity me, but none I found;
comforters found I none.

21 They also bitter gall did give unto me for my meat:
They gave me vinegar to drink,
when as my thirst was great.

22 Before them let their table prove a snare; and do thou make Their welfare and prosperity
a trap themselves to take.

23 Let thou their eyes so darkned be,
that sight may them forsake:
And let their loins be made by thee
continually to shake.

24 Thy fury pour thou out on them,
and indignation:
And let thy wrathful anger, Lord,
fast hold take them upon.

25 All waste and desolate let be their habitation;
And in their tabernacles all inhabitants be none.

26 Because him they do persecute,
whom thou did'st smite before;
They talk unto the grief of those whom thou hast wounded sore.

27 Add thou iniquity unto their former wickedness:
And do not let them come at all
into thy righteousness.

28 Out of the book of life let them
be raz'd and blotted quite;
Among the just and righteous
let not their names be writ.

29 But now become exceeding poor
and sorrowful am I:

By thy salvation, O my God,
let me be set on high.

30 The name of God I with a song
most cheerfully will praise:
And I, in giving thanks to him,
his name shall highly raise.

31 This to the Lord a sacrifice
more gracious shall prove,
Than bullock, ox, or any beast,
that hath both horn and hoof.

32 When this the humble men shall see,
it joy to them shall give:
O all ye that do seek the Lord,
your hearts shall ever live.

33 For God the poor hears, and will not his prisoners contemn. (praise)

34 Let heav'n, and earth, and seas him
and all that move in them.

35 For God will Judah's cities build,
and he will Sion save;
That they may dwell therein, and it
in sure possession have.

36 And they that are his servants feed inherit shall the same;
So shall they have their dwelling there that love his blessed name.

is plac'd in thee alone:
Then let thy servant never be put to confusion.

from thee deliverance have;

in strength of God the Lord :

alone, I will record.

by thee I have been taught ;

And hitherto I have declar'd
the wonders thou hast wrought.

All to this age thy strength and pow'r
to all to come I show.

19 And thy most perfect righteousness,
O Lord, is very high,

who is like unto thee ?

from depths of earth below. (wilt :

Thou holy One of Israel,
with harp I'll sing to thee.

when I thy praises sound :

My soul, which thou redeemed hast,
in joy shall much abound.

that seek to do me wrong.

PSAL. LXXII.

O Lord, thy judgments give the king,
his son thy righteousness.

2 With right he shall thy people judge,
thy poor with uprightness.

3 The lofty mountains shall bring forth unto the people peace ;

Likewise the little hills the same shall do by righteousness.

the needy's children save :

from sea to sea extend :

It from the river shall reach forth unto earth's utmost end.

9 They in the wilderness that dwell,
bow down before him must :

And they that are his enemies
shall lick the very dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish, and the isles
to him shall presents bring,

And unto him shall offer gifts
Sheba's and Seba's king.

11 Yea, all the mighty kings on earth
before him down shall fall :

And all the nations of the world do service to him shall.

when he to him doth call :

The poor also, and him that hath
no help of man at all.

13 The poor man and the indigent
in mercy he shall spare ;

He shall preserve alive the souls
of those that needy are.

their soul he shall set free ;

And in his sight right precious and dear their blood shall be.

PSALM LXXIII, LXXIV.

The city shall be flourishing,
her citizens abound
In number shall like to the grass
that grows upon the ground.
17 His name for ever shall endure,
last like the sun it shall:
Men shall be blest in him, and blest
all nations shall him call.
18 Now blessed be the Lord our God,
the God of Israel,
For he alone doth wondrous works
in glory that excel.
19 And blessed be his glorious name
to all eternity;
The whole earth let his glory fill:
Amen, so let it be.

PSALM LXXIII.

YET God is good to Israel,
to each pure hearted one.
2 But as for me, my steps near slip,
my feet were almost gone,
3 For I envious was, and grudg'd
the foolish folk to see,
When I perceiv'd the wicked sort enjoy prosperity.
4 For still their strength continueth
their death of bands is free: (firm, 5 They are not toil'd as other men,
nor plagu'd as others be.
6 Therefore their pride, like to a chain,
them compasseth about;
And, as a garment, violence
doth cover them throughout.
7 Their eyes stand out with fat, they have more than their hearts could wish.
8 They are corrupt, their talk of wrong
both lewd and lofty is. (heav'ns, 9 They set their mouth against the
in their blasphemous talk; (out
And their reproaching tongue through-
the earth at large doth walk.
10 His people oftentimes for this look back, and turn about;
Sith waters of so full a cup
to these are poured out.
11 And thus they say, How can it be that God these things doth know?
Or, can there in the Highest be knowledge of things below?
12 Behold, these are the wicked ones,
yet prosper at their will
In worldly things, they do increase in wealth and riches still.
13 I verily have done in vain
my heart to purify;
To no effect in innocence
washed my hands have I.
14 For daily, and all day throughout,
great plagues I suffer'd have;
Yea, ev'ry morning I of new
did chastisement receive.
15 If in this manner foolishly
to speak I would intend,
Thy childrens generation,
behold, I should offend.
16 When I this thought to know, it was too hard a thing for me:

17 Till to God's sanctuary I went,
then I their end did see.
18 Assuredly thou didst them set
a slipp'ry place upon:
Them suddenly thou castedst down
into destruction.
19 How in a moment suddenly to ruin brought are they!
With fearful terrors utterly
they are consum'd away.
20 Ev'n like unto a dream, when one
from sleeping doth arise;
So thou, O Lord, when thou awak'st,
their image shalt despise.
21 Thus grieved was my heart in me
and me my reins oppress'd.
22 So rude was I, and ignorant,
and in thy sight a beast.
23 Nevertheless, continually,
O Lord, I am with thee:
Thou dost me hold by my right hand
and still upholdest me.
24 Thou, with thy counsel, while I live
wilt me conduct and guide;
And to thy glory afterward
receive me to abide.
25 Whom have I in the heavens high
but thee, O Lord, alone?
And in the earth whom I desire,
besides thee, there is none.
26 My flesh and heart doth faint
but God doth fail me never: (fail
For of my heart God is the strength,
and portion for ever.
27 For lo, they that are far from thee
for ever perish shall:
Them that a whoring from thee go,
thou hast destroyed all.
28 But surely it is good for me,
that I draw near to God:
In God I trust, that all thy works
I may declare abroad.

PSALM LXXIV.

O God, why hast thou cast us off?
is it for evermore?
Against thy pasture sheep why doth thine anger smoke so sore?
2 O call to thy remembrance
thy congregation,
Which thou hast purchased of old,
still think the same upon:
The rod of thine inheritance,
which thou redeemedst hast,
This sion hill, wherein thou hadst
thy dwelling in times past.
3 To these long desolations
thy feet lift, do not tarry:
For all the ills thy foes have done
within thy sanctuary.
4 Amidst thy congregations
thine enemies do rore:
Their ensigns they set up, for signs
of triumph, thee before.
5 A man was famous, and was had
in estimation,
According as he lifted up his ax thick trees upon.

PSAL. LXXV, LXXVI.

6 But all at once with axes now
and hammers they go to;
And down the carved work thereof
they break and quite undo.
7 They fired have thy sanctuary,
and have defil'd the same,
By casting down unto the ground
the place where dwelt thy name.
8 Thus said they in their hearts, Let us
destroy them out of hand:
They burnt up all the synagogues
of God within the land.
9 Our signs we do not now behold;
there is not us among A prophet more, nor any one
that knows the time how long.
10 How long, Lord, shall the enemy
thus in reproach exclaim?
And shall the adversary thus always blaspheme thy name? (might 11 Thy hand, ev'n thy right hand of why dost thou thus draw back?
O from thy bosom pluck it out,
for our deliverance sake.
12 For certainly God is my King,
ev'n from the times of old,
Working in midst of all the earth
salvation manifold.
13 The sea, by thy great pow'r, to part asunder thou didst make:
And thou the dragons heads, O Lord,
within the waters brake.
14 The leviathan's heads thou brak'st
in pieces, and didst give him to be meat unto the folk
in wilderness that live. (flood, 15 Thou clay'st the fountain and the
which did with streams abound:
Thou dry'st the mighty waters up unto the very ground.
16 Thine only is the day, O Lord,
thine also is the night:
And thou alone prepared hast
the sun and shining light.
17 By thee the borders of the earth
were settled ev'ry where:
The summer and the winter both
by thee created were.
18 That th' enemy reproached hath,
O keep it in record;
And that the foolish people have blasphem'd thy name, O Lord.
19 Unto the multitude do not thy turtle's soul deliver:
The congregation of thy poor
do not forget for ever.
20 Unto thy cov'nant have respect:
for earth's dark places be full of the habitations
of horrid cruelty.
21 O let not those that be oppress'd
return again with shame:
let those that poor and needy are give praise unto thy name.
22 Do thou, O God, arise and plead
the cause that is thine own:
remember how thou art reproach'd
still by the foolish one.

23 Do not forget the voice of those that are thine enemies;
Of those the tumult ever grows
that do against thee rise.

PSAL. LXXV.

TO thee, O God, do we give thanks,
we do give thanks to thee:
Because thy wondrous works declare thy great name near to be.
2 I purpose, when I shall receive
the congregation,
That I shall judgment uprightly
render to ev'ry one.
3 Dissolved is the land, with all that in the same do dwell;
But I the pillars thereof do bear up and stablish well.
4 I to the foolish people said,
Do not deal foolishly;
And unto those that wicked are,
Lift not your horn on high.
5 Lift not your horn on high, nor speak
6 with stubborn neck. But know,
That nor from east, nor west, nor south,
promotion doth flow.
7 But God is judge: he puts down one,
and sets another up.
8 For in the hand of God most high
of red wine is a cup:
'Tis full of mixture, he pours forth,
and makes the wicked all Wring out the bitter dregs thereof;
yea, and they drink them shall.
9 But I for ever will declare,
I Jacob's God will praise.
10 All horns of lewd men I'll cut off;
but just mens horns will raise.

PSAL. LXXVI.

IN Judah's land God is well known,
his name's in Isra'l great:
2 In Salem is his tabernacle,
in Sion is his seat.
3 There arrows of the bow he brake,
the shield, the sword, the war.
4 More glorious thou than hills of prey,
more excellent art far.
5 Those that were stout of heart are they slept their sleep outright; (spoild,
And none of those their hands did find
that were the men of might.
6 When thy rebuke, O Jacob's God,
had forth against them past,
Their horses and their chariots both
were in a dead sleep cast.
7 Thou, Lord, ev'n thou art he that be fear'd, and who is he (should
That may stand up before thy sight,
if come thou angry be? (heard,
8 From heav'n thou judgment caus'd be the earth was still with fear, 9 When God to judgment rose, to save all meek on earth that were.
10 Surely the very wrath of man
unto thy praise redounds:
Thou to the remnant of his wrath
will set restraining bounds.
11 Vow to the Lord your God, and pay,
all ye that near him be,

PSAL. LXXVII, LXXVIII.

Bring gifts and presents unto him ;
for to be fear'd is he.

12 By him the spirits shall be cut off
of those that princes are :
Unto the kings that are on earth
his fearful doth appear.

PSAL. LXXVII.

Unto the Lord I with my voice,
I unto God did cry ;
Ev'n with my voice, and unto me
his ear he did apply.

2 I in my trouble sought the Lord,
my sore by night did run,
And ceased not : my griev'd soul
did consolation shun.

3 I to remembrance God did call,
yet trouble did remain :
And overwhelm'd my spirit was,
whilst I did sore complain. (sleep,

4 Mine eyes, debarr'd from rest and thou makest still to wake :
My trouble is so great, that I unable am to speak.

5 The days of old to mind I call'd,
and oft did think upon
The times and ages that are past
full many years ago.

6 By night my song I call to mind,
and commune with my heart,
My spirit did carefully enquire
how I might ease my smart.

7 For ever will the Lord cast off
and gracious be no more ?

8 For ever is his mercy gone ?
fails his word evermore ?

9 Is't true, that to be gracious
the Lord forgotten hath ?
And that his tender mercies he hath shut up in his wrath ?

10 Then did I say, that surely this is mine infirmity :

I'll mind the years of the right hand
of him that is most high.

11 Yea, I remember will the works
performed by the Lord :
The wonders done of old by thee
I surely will record.

12 I also will of all thy works
my meditation make,
And of thy doings to discourse
great pleasure I will take.

13 O God, thy way most holy is
within thy sanctuary :
And what God is so great in pow'r,
as is our God most high ?

14 Thou art the God that wonders dost
by thy right hand most strong ;
Thy mighty pow'r thou hast declar'd
the nations among.

15 To thine own people with thine arm
thou didst redemption bring ;
To Jacob's sons, and to the tribes
of Joseph that do spring.

16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee,
the waters saw thee well :
And they for fear aside did flee ;
the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds in water forth were found loudly did the sky ; (pour'd,
And swiftly through the world abroad
thine arrows fierce did fly.

18 Thy thunder's voice amongst the
a mighty noise did make : (heav'n
By lightnings lightned was the world,
th' earth tremble did and shake.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and in the waters great thy path ;
Yet are thy footsteps hid, O Lord,
none knowledge thereof hath.

20 Thy people thou didst safely lead
like to a flock of sheep,
By Moses hand and Aaron's thou didst them conduct and keep.

PSAL. LXXVIII.

Attend, my people, to my law,
thereto give thou an ear :
The words that from my mouth proattentively do hear. (ceed

2 My mouth shall speak a parable,
and sayings dark of old : (known,

3 The same which we have heard, and
and us our fathers told.

4 We also will them not conceal
from their posterity :
Them to the generation
to come declare will we :

The praises of the Lord our God,
and his almighty strength,
The wondrous works that he hath done,
we will shew forth at length.

5 His testimony and his law
in Isra'l he did place,
And charg'd our fathers it to shew
to their succeeding race.

6 That so the race which was to come,
might well them learn and know ;
And sons unborn, who should arise,
might to their sons them shew.

7 That they might set their hope in and suffer not to fall (God,
His mighty works out of their mind,
but keep his precepts all.

8 And might not, like their fathers, be a stiff rebellious race,
A race not right in heart : with God whose spirit not steadfast was.

nor other arms did lack,
When as the day of battle was,
they faintly turned back. (fus'd

10 They brake God's covenant, and re-

which he to them did shew.

12 Things marvellous he brought to their fathers them beheld, (pass, Within the land of Egypt done,
yea, ev'n in Zoan's field.

13 By him divided was the sea,
he caus'd them through to pass ;
And made the waters so to stand,
as like an heap it was.

14 With cloud by day, with light of fire
all night he did them guide.

P S A L. LXXVIII.

15 In desert rocks he clave, and drink
as from great depths supply'd.

16 He from the rock brought streams,
made waters to run down. (like floods)

17 Yet sinning more, in desert they provok'd the highest One.

18 For in their heart they tempted God,
and, speaking with mistrust,
They greedily did meat require
to satisfy their lust.

19 Against the Lord himself they spake,
and murmuring said thus,
A table in the wilderness
can God prepare for us?

20 Behold, he smote the rock, and thence came streams and waters great;
But can he give his people bread?
and send them flesh to eat?

21 The Lord did hear, and waxed wroth,
to kindle was a flame Against Jacob, and against Israel
up indignation came.

22 For they believ'd not God, nor trust
in his salvation had: (mand,

23 Though clouds above he did com-
and heav'n's doors open made;

24 And manna rain'd on them, and gave them corn of heav'n to eat.

25 Man angels food did eat, to them
he to the full sent meat.

26 And in the heaven he did cause
an eastern wind to blow;
And by his power he let out
the southern wind to go.

27 Then flesh as thick as dust he made
to rain down them among;
And feather'd fowls, like as the sand
which ly'th the shore along.

28 At his command amidst their camp
these show'rs of flesh down fell,
All round about the tabernacles,
and tents where they did dwell.

29 So did they eat abundantly,
and had of meat their fill;
For he did give to them what was their own desire and will. (strang'd right early did enquire.

had their redeemer been.

36 Yet with their mouth they flatter'd
and spake but feignedly; (him,
And they unto the God of truth
with their false tongues did ly.

37 For though their words were good,
their heart
with him was not sincere:
United fast and perfidious
they in his cov'nant were.

38 But, full of pity, he forgave
their sin, them did not slay:
Nor stirr'd up all his wrath, but oft
his anger turn'd away.

39 For that they were but fading flesh,
to mind he did recal;
A wind, that passeth soon away,
and not returns at all.

40 How often did they him provoke within the wilderness?
And in the desert did him grieve
with their rebelliousness?

41 Yea, turning back they tempted God,
and limits set upon Him, who in midst of Isra'l is the only holy One.

42 They did not call to mind his pow'r,
nor yet the day when he Deliver'd them out of the hand
of their fierce enemy.

43 Nor how great signs in Egypt land
he openly had wrought;
What miracles in Zoan's field
his hand to pass had brought.

44 How lakes and rivers ev'ry where he turned into blood;
So that no man nor beast could drink
of standing lake or flood. (flies,

45 He brought among them swarms of

And divers kinds of filthy frogs
he sent, them to destroy.

unto the locusts' spoil. (mores

But over to the pestilence
the lives of them he gave.

51 In Egypt land the first-born all
he smote down ev'ry where;
Amongst the tents of Ham, ev'n those chief of their strength that were.

52 But his own people, like to these,
thence to go forth he made;
And he amidst the wilderness
them as a flock did lead.

PSAL. LXXIX, LXXX.

53 And he them safely on did lead,
 so that they did not fear:
 Whereas their enemies by the sea
 quite overwhelmed were.
 54 To borders of his sanctuary
 the Lord his people led,
 Ev'n to the mount, which his right hand
 for them had purchased.

55 The nations of Canaan,
 by his almighty hand,
 Before their face he did expel
 out of their native land,
 Which for inheritance to them
 by line he did divide,
 And made the tribes of Israel
 within their tents abide.

56 Yet God most high they did provoke,
 and tempted ever still;
 And to observe his testimonies
 did not incline their will.

57 But like their fathers turned back,
 and dealt unfaithfully:
 Aside they turned, like a bow
 that shoots deceitfully.

58 For they to anger did provoke
 him with their places high;
 And with their graven images
 mov'd him to jealousy. [wroth,

59 When God heard this, he waxed
 and much loth'd Isra'l then:

60 So Shiloh's tent he left, the tent
 which he had plac'd with men:

61 And he his strength deliver'd
 into captivity,

He left his glory in the hand
 of his proud enemy.

62 His people also he gave o'er,
 unto the sword's fierce rage:

63 So for his wrath inflamed was against his heritage.

63 The fire consum'd their choice young [men,
 their maids no marriage had. [sword,

64 And when their priests sold by the
 the r wives no mourning made.

65 But then the Lord arose, as one that doth from sleep awake:

And like a giant that, by wine
 refresh'd, a shout doth make.

66 Upon his enemies hinder parts
 he made his stroke to fall;

And so upon them he did put
 a shame perpetual.

67 Moreover, he the tabernacle
 of Joseph did refuse:

The mighty tribe of Ephraim
 he would in no wise chuse.

68 But he did chuse Jehudah's tribe
 to be the rest above;

And of mount Zion he made choice,
 which he so much did love.

69 And he his sanctuary built,
 like to a palace high,

Like to the earth, which he did found
 to perpetuity.

70 Of David, that his servant was,
 he also choice did make:

And even from the folds of sheep
 was pleas'd him to take.

71 From waiting on the ewes with young
 he brought him forth to feed
 Israel his inheritance,
 his people, Jacobs seed.

72 So after the integrity
 he of his heart them led;
 And by the good skill of his hands
 them wisely governed.

PSAL. LXXIX.

O God, the heathen entred have thine heritage; by them defiled is thy house: on heaps they laid Jerusalem.

2 The bodies of thy servants they have cast forth, to be meat
 To ravenous fowls, thy dear saints flesh
 they gave to beasts to eat.

3 Their blood about Jerusalem
 like water they have shed:
 And there was none to bury them,
 when they were slain and dead.

4 Unto our neighbours a reproach
 most base, become are we;
 A scorn and laughing-stock to them
 that round about us be.

5 How long, Lord, shall thine anger
 wilt thou still keep the same? [Iak?
 And shall thy servant jealousy
 burn, like unto a flame?

 O Lord, reproach'd thee.

 shall give thee thanks always:
 And unto generations all
 we will shew forth thy praise.

by thine own folk to thee?
- 5 'Thou tears of sorrow giv'st to them
in stead of bread, to eat:
Yea, tears in stead of drink, thou giv'st
to them in measure great.
- 6 Thou makest us a strife unto
our neighbours round about:
Our enemies among themselves
at us do laugh and flout.
- 7 Turn us again, O God of hosts,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.
- 8 A vine from Egypt brought thou hast,
by thine outstretched hand:
And thou the heathen thou didst cast
to plant it in their land.
- 9 Before it thou a room didst make
where it might grow and stand:
Thou caulest it deep root to take,
and it did fill the land.
- 10 The mountains vall'd were with its
as with a covering;
Like goodly cedars were the boughs
which out from it did spring.
- 11 Upon the one hand, to the sea
her boughs she did out-stend;
On th' other side, unto the flood
her branches did extend.
- 12 Why hast thou then thus broken
and taken her hedge away?
So that all passengers do pluck,
and make of her a prey.
- 13 The boar who from the forest comes,
doth waste it at his pleasure;
The wild beast of the field also devours it out of measure.
- 14 O God of hosts, we thee beseech,
return now unto thine:
Look down from heav'n, in love, be-
and visit this thy vine:
- 15 This vineyard which thine own right hand planted us among;
And that have branch, which for thy-thou hast made to be strong.
- 16 Burnt up it is with flaming fire,
it also is cut down:
They utterly are perished,
when as thy face doth frown.
- 17 O let thy hand be still upon
the man of thy right hand,
The son of man, whom for thyself
thou madest strong to stand.
- 18 So henceforth we will not go back,
nor turn from thee at all:
O do thou quicken us, and we
upon thy name will call.

- 19 Turn us again, Lord God of hosts,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

- Sing loud to God, our strength; with
to Jacob's God do sing.
- 2 Take up a psalm, the pleasant harp,

- 3 Blow trumpets at new-moon, what our feast appointed is:
- 4 For charge to Isra'l, and a law
of Jacob's God was this.
- 5 To Joseph this a testimony
he made, when Egypt land heard
He travell'd through, where speech I
I did not understand.
- 6 His shoulder I from burdens took,
his hands from pots did free.
- 7 Thou didst in trouble on me call,
and I deliver'd thee:
- In secret place of thundering
I did thee answer make;
And at the streams of Meribah
of thee a proof did take.
- 8 O thou my people give an ear,
I'll testify to thee:
- To thee, O Isra'l, if thou wilt
but hearken unto me.
- 9 In midst of thee there shall not be any strange god at all;
Nor unto any god unknown
thou bowing down shalt fall.
- 10 I am the Lord thy God, which did
from Egypt land thee guide;
I'll fill thy mouth abundantly,
do thou it open wide.
- 11 But yet my people to my voice
would not attentive be;
And ev'n my chosen Isra'l
he would have none of me.
- 12 So to the lust of their own hearts
I them delivered:
And then in counsels of their own
they vainly wandered.

- 13 O that my people had me heard,
Isra'l my ways had chose:
- 14 I had their enemies soon subdu'd,
my hand turn'd on their foes.
- 15 The haters of the Lord, to him
submission should have feigned,
But as for them, their time should have
for evermore remain'd.
- 16 He should have also fed them with
the finest of the wheat:
Of honey from the rock, thy fill
I should have made thee eat.

thou mad'st them to abhor me ;

And I am so shut up, that I

mine eye mourns dolefully :
To thee, Lord, do I call, and stretch
my hands continually.

shall they rise and thee bless ?

in death thy faithfulness ?

2 For mercy shall be built, said I,
for ever to endure:

Thy faithfulness, ev'n in the heav'n's,

And to my servant whom I lov'd,
to David I will have I:

4 That I thy seed establish shall
for ever to remain;

And will to generations all thy throne build and maintain.

5 The praises of thy wonders, Lord;
the heavens shall express;

And in the congregation
of saint, thy faithfulness.

6 For who in heaven with the Lord
may once himself compare?

Who is like God among the sons
of those that mighty are?

7 Great fear in meeting of the saints
is due unto the Lord;

And he of all about him should
with reverence be ador'd.

30 But if his children shall forsake
my laws, and go astray,

And in my judgments shall not walk,
but wander from my way:

15 But judgment unto righteousness

And all shall follow after it,
that are right-hearted men.

16 Who will rise up for me 'gainst
those that do wickedly?

Who will stand up for me, 'gainst those

Almost my soul had in the house of silence been at rest.

Thy mercy held me up, O Lord,
thy goodness did me stay.

19 Amidst the multitude of thoughts,
which in my heart do fight,
My soul, lest it be overcharg'd,

O Come, let us sing to the Lord,
come, let us every one

A joyful noise make to the rock
of our salvation.

with praise and thankful voice:
Let us sing psalms to him with grace,

3 For God a great God, and great King
above all gods he is.

4 Depths of the earth are in his hand,
the strength of hills is his.

5 To him the spacious sea belongs,
for he the same did make:
The dry land also from his hands
its form at first did take.

let us bow down withal,
And on our knees before the Lord
our maker, let us fall.

7 For he's our God, the people we
of his own pasture are,
And of his hand the sheep; to day

O Lord, unto my pray'r give ear,
my cry let come to thee:
2 And in the day of my distress,
hide not thy face from me;
Give ear to me: what time I call,
to answer me make haste.
3 For as an hearth my bones are burnt,
my days like smoke do waste.
4 My heart within me smitten is,
and it is withered
like very grass: so that I do
forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of my growing voice,
my bones cleave to my skin.
6 Like pelican in wilderness
forsaken I have been.

I like an owl in desert am,
that nightly there doth mone.
7 I watch, and like a sparrow am
on the house-top alone.
8 My bitter enemies all the day
reproaches cast on me:
And, being mad at me, with rage
against me sworn they be.
9 For why, I ashes eaten have,
like bread, in sorrow swept:
My drink I also mingled have
with tears that I did weep.
10 Thy wrath and indignation
did cause this grief and pain:
For thou hast lift me up on high,
and cast me down again.

11 My days are like unto a shade,
which doth declining pass:
And I am dry'd and withered,
ev'n like unto the grass.
12 But thou, Lord, everlasting art, and thy remembrance shall continually endure, and be
to generations all.
13 Thou shalt arise, and mercy have upon thy Zion yet:
The time to favour her is come,
the time that thou hast set.
14 For in her rubbish and her stones
thy servants pleasure take,
Yea, they the very dust thereof
do favour for her sake.
15 So shall the heathen people fear
the Lord's most holy name:
And all the kings on earth shall dread
thy glory, and thy fame.
16 When Zion by the mighty Lord
built up again shall be,
In glory then and majesty,
to men appear shall he.

17 The prayer of the destitute
he surely will regard,
Their prayer will he not despise,
by him it shall be heard.
18 For generations yet to come
this shall be on record:
So shall the people, that shall be created, praise the Lord.
19 He from his sanctuary's height

And from his glorious throne in heav'n

And publish in Jerusalem

And, as an hearth, my bones do burn.

And wither'd, like grass, doth fade :
I am forgetful grown therefore
To take and eat my daily bread.

5 By reason of my smart within,
And voice of my most grievous groan,
My flesh consumed is, my skin,
All parch'd, doth cleave unto my bones.

8 I all day long am made a scorn,
Reproach'd by my malicious foes :
The mad men are against me sworn,
The men against me that arose.

Th' afflicted's pray'r he will not scorn.

18 All times this shall be in record :
And generations yet unborn
Shall praise and magnify the Lord.

And free them that are doom'd to die.

His name and praise may well record :
22 When people, and the kingdoms do Assemble all to praise the Lord.

23 My strength he weaken'd in the way,
My days of life he short'n'd.

24 My God, O take me not away
In mid-time of my days, I said :
Thy years throughout all ages last,

25 Of old thou hast established
The earth's foundation firm and fast :
Thy mighty hands the heav'ns have made.

26 They perish shall, as garments do,
But thou shalt evermore endure : (so ;
As vesture, thou shalt change them
And they shall all be changed sure.

27 But from all changes thou art free, Thy endless years do last for ay. (be,

with gladness forth he brought.
44 And unto them the pleasant lands
he of the heathen gave:
That of the people's labour they inheritance might have.
45 That they his statutes might observe,
according to his word;
And that they might his laws obey.
Give praise unto the Lord.

PSAL. CVI.

Give praise and thanks unto the
for boundless is his: (Lord,
His tender mercy doth endure
unto eternity.

- 2 God's mighty works who can express?
or shew forth all his praise?
3 Blessed are they that judgment keep,
and justly do always.
4 Remember me, Lord, with that love,
which thou to thine dost bear;
With thy salvation, O my God,
to visit me draw near:
5 That I thy choicest good may see,
and in their joy rejoice;
And may with thine inheritance
triumph with cheerful voice.
6 We with our fathers sinned have,
and of iniquity
Too long we have the workers been,
we have done wickedly. (Loud,
7 The wonders eat which thou, O
did'st work in Egypt land,
Our fathers, though they saw, yet them
they did not understand.

And they thy mercies multitude
kept not in memory:

But at the sea, ev'n the Red sea,
provok'd him grievously.

8 Nevertheless he liv'd them,
ev'n for his own name's sake:

That to his might, to be well known
his mighty power make.

9 When he the Red sea did rebuke,
then dried up it was: (desert,
Through depths, as through the will-
he safely made them pass. (them

10 From hands of those that hated
he did his people save:

And from the en'my's cruel hand
to them redemption gave.

11 The waters overwhelm'd their foes;
not one was left alive.

12 Then they believ'd his word, and to him in songs did give. (praise

13 But soon did they his mighty works
forget unthankfully;

And on his counsel and his will
did not wait patiently:

14 But much did lust in wilderness, and God in desert tempt. (but to 15 He gave them what they sought, their soul he scarceness sent.

16 And against Moses, in the camp,
their envy did appear;

At Aaron they, the saint of God,
enviours also were.

17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour,

And all Abiram's company
did cover in that hour.

18 Likewise among their company
a fire was kindled then:

And to the hot consuming flame
burnt up these wicked men.

19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol calf did frame,

A molten image they did make,
and worshipp'd the same.

20 And thus their glory, and their God,
most vainly changed they

Into the likeness of an ox,
that eateth grass or hay.

21 They did forget the mighty God,
that had their Saviour been, (pass

By whom such great things brought to they had in Egypt seen. (works

22 In Ham's land he did wondrous things terrible did he,

When he his mighty hand and arm
stretch'd out at the Red sea.

23 Then said he, he would them de-
had not, his wrath to stay, (Groy,

His chosen Moses stood in breach,
that them he should not slay.

24 Yea, they despis'd the pleasant land,
believ'd not his word:

25 But in their tents they murmured,
not hearkning to the Lord.

26 Therefore in desert them to slay
he lifted up his hand: (feed,

27 Mong nations to overthrow their
and scatter in each land.

28 They unto Baal-peor did themselves affiliate;

The sacrifices of the dead
they did profanely eat.

29 Thus, by their lewd inventions,
they did provoke his ire;

And then upon them suddenly
the plague brake in as fire.

30 Then Pharaoh rose, and justice did,
and to the plague did cease.

31 That to all ages counted was to him for righteousness.

32 And at the waters where they strove,
they did him angry make.

PSAL. CVII.

In such sort, that it fared ill
with Moses for their sake :

33 Because they there his spirit meek
provoked bitterly,

So that he utter'd with his lips
words unadvisedly.

34 Nor, as the Lord commanded them,
did they the nations stay :

35 But with the heathen mingled were,
and learn'd of them their way.

36 And they their idols serv'd, which did
a snare unto them turn. (de'is

37 Their sons and daughters they to in sacrifice did burn.

38 In their own childrens guiltless
their hands they did imbrue, (blood Whom to Canaan's idols they
for sacrifices slew;

So was the land defil'd with blood.

39 They stain'd with their own way,
And with their own inventions,
who ing they did fray.

40 Against his people kindled was the wrath of God therefore;
Inasmuch that he did his own inheritance abhor.

41 He gave them to the heathens hand;
their foes did them command.

42 Their enemies them oppress, they made subject to their hand. (were 43 He many times deliver'd them,

but with their counsel to

They him provok'd, that for their sin
they were brought very low.

44 Yet their affliction he beheld,
when he did hear their cry :

45 And he for them his covenant
did call to memory :

After his mercies multitude

46 he did repent. And made Them to be pity'd of all those who did them captive lead.

47 O Lord our God, us save, and gather
the heathen from among.
That we thy holy name may praise
in a triumphant song.

48 Blest be Jehovah, Isra'l's God,
to all eternity :

Let all the people say, Amen.

Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSAL. CVII.

Praise God, for he is good, for still his mercies lasting be.

2 Let God's redeem'd say so, whom he
from th' en'my's hand did free :

3 And gather'd them out of the lands,
from north, south, east, and west.

4 They stray'd in deserts pathless way,
no city found to rest.

5 For thirst and hunger in them faints
6 their soul. When straits them press,

They cry unto the Lord, and he
them frees from their distress.

7 Them also in a way to walk,
that right is, he did guide,

That they might to a city go wherein they might abide.

8 O that men to the Lord would give
praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men.

9 For he the soul that longing is doth fully satisfy;
With goodness he the hungry soul
doth fill abundantly.

10 Such as shut up in darkness deep,
and in death's shade abide,
Whom strongly hath affliction bound,
and irons fast have ty'd.

11 (Because against the words of God
they wrought rebelliously,
And they the counsel did contemn
of him that is most high.)

12 Their heart he did bring down with they fell, no help could have. (grief,

13 In trouble then they cry'd to God,
he them from straits did save.

14 He out of darkness did them bring,
and from death's shade them take :
Those hands wherewith they had been asunder quite he brake. (bound

15 O that men to the Lord would give
praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men.

16 Because the mighty gates of brass
in pieces he did tear,
By him in sunder also cut
the bars of iron were.

17 Fools for their sin, and their of-
do fore affliction bear. (tence,

18 All kind of meat their soul abhors,
they to death's gates draw near.

19 In grief they cry to God, he saves them from their miseries. (them

20 He sends his word, them heals, and from their destructions frees.

21 O that men to the Lord would give
praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men.

22 And let them sacrifice to him
off'rings of thankfulness :
And let them shew abroad his works
in songs of joyfulness.

23 Who go to sea in ships, and in great waters trad ag he, (works,

24 Within the deep these men Gods
and his great wonders see.

25 For he commands, and forth in haste
the stormy tempest flies, (waves
Which makes the sea with rolling aloft to swell and rise.

26 They mount to heav'n, then to the
they do go down again: (depths

Their soul doth faint, and melt away
with trouble and with pain. (drunk,

27 They reel and stagger like sea
at their wits end they be :

28 Then they to God in trouble cry,
who them from straits doth free.

29 The storm is chang'd into a calm,
at his command and will ;

So that the waves which rag'd before
now quiet are and still.

30 Then

P S A L. CVIII, CIX.

30 Then are they glad, because at rest
and quiet now they be ;
So to the haven he them brings,
which they desir'd to see.

31 O that men to the Lord would give
praise for his goodness then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men.

32 Among the people gathered,
let them exalt his name ;
Among assembled elders spread
his most renowned fame.

33 He to dry land turns water-springs,
and floods to wilderness :

34 For sins of those that dwell therein,
fat land to barrenness.

35 The burnt and parched wilderness
to water-pools he brings,
The ground, that was dry'd up before,
he turns to water-springs :

36 And there, for dwelling, he a place
doth to the hungry give,
That they a city may prepare commodiously to live. (plant,

37 There sow they fields and vineyards
to yield fruits of increase.

38 His blessing makes them multiply,
lets not their beasts decrease.

39 Again they are diminished,
and very low brought down,
Through sorrow and affliction,
and great oppression.

40 He upon princes pours contempt,
and causeth them to stray,
And wander in a wilderness,
wherein there is no way.

41 Yet setteth he the poor on high
from all his miseries,
And he, much like unto a flock,
doth make him families. (joice,

42 They that are righteous shall re-
when they the same shall see ;
And, as ashamed, stop her mouth
shall all iniquity.

43 Whofo is wise, and will these things
observe, and them record, Ev'n they shall understand the love
and kindness of the Lord.

P S A L. CVIII.

MY heart is fix'd, Lord, I will sing,
and with my glory praise.

Awake up, psaltery and harp,
myself I'll early raise. (Lord,

I'll praise thee 'mong the people,
'mong nations sing will I.

For above heav'n thy mercy's great,
thy truth doth reach the sky.

Be thou above the heavens, Lord,
exalted gloriously :

thy glory all the earth above
be lifted up on high.

That those who thy beloved are delivered may be :

do thou save with thy right hand,
and answer give to me.

God in his holiness hath said,
Herein I will take pleasure,

30 Then

Shechem I will divide, and forth :
will Succoth's measure.

8 Gilead I claim as mine by right,
Manasseh mine shall be,

Ephraim is of my head the strength,
Judah gives laws for me

9 Moab's my washing-pot, my shoe
I'll over Edom throw ;

Over the land of Palestine
I will in triumph go.

10 O who is he will bring me to the city fortify'd !

O who is he that to the land ?
of Edom will me guide !

11 O God, thou who hadst cast us off,
this thing wilt thou not do ?

And wilt not thou, ev'n thou, O God,
forth with our armies go ?

12 Do thou from trouble give us help,
for helpless is man's aid.

13 Through God we shall do valiantly
our foes he shall down tread.

P S A L. CIX.

O Thou the God of all my praise,
do thou not hold thy peace :

2 For mouths of wicked men to speak
against me do not cease :

The mouths of vile deceitful men against me op'ned be ;

And with a false and lying tongue
they have accused me.

3 They did beset me round about with words of hateful spite :

And, though to them no cause I gave,
against me they did fight.

4 They for my love became my foes,
but I me set to pray.

5 Evil for good, hatred for love,
to me they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him,
and upon his right hand,

Give thou his greatest enemy,
ev'n Satan, leave to stand.

7 And when by thee he shall be judg'd,
let him condemn'd be ;

And let his pray'r be turn'd to sin,
when he shall call on thee.

8 Few be his days, and in his room
his charge another take.

9 His children let be fatherless,
his wife a widow make.

10 His children let be vagabonds,
and beg continually ;

And, from their places desolate,
seek bread for their supply.

11 Let covetous extortioners,
catch all he hath away :

Of all for which he labour'd hath let strangers make a prey.

12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all

That on his children fatherless
will let his mercy fall.

13 Let his posterity from earth
cut off for ever be,

And in the following age their name
be blotted out by thee.

P S A L. CX, CXI.

14 Let God his father's wickedness
still to remembrance call;
And never let his mother's sin
be blotted out at all.

15 But let them all before the Lord
appear continually,
That he may wholly from the earth
cut off their memory.

16 Because he mercy minded not,
but persecuted still
The poor and needy, that he might
the broken-hearted kill.

17 As he in cursing pleasure took,
so let it to him fall;
As he delighted not to bless,
so bless him not at all.

18 As cursing he like clothes put on,
into his bowels so,
Like water, and into his bones,
like oil, down let it go.

19 Like to the garment let it be which doth himself array,
And for a girdle, wherewith he is girt about alway.

20 From God let this be their reward
that enemies are to me,
And their reward, that speak against my soul maliciously.

21 But do thou, for thine own name's
O God the Lord, for me: (take,
Sith good and sweet thy mercy is,
from trouble set me free.

22 For I am poor and indigent,
afflicted sore am I,
My heart within me also is wounded exceedingly.

23 I pass like a declining shade,
am like the locust tost. (are:
24 My knees through fasting weakened
my flesh hath fatness lost.

25 I also am a vile reproach unto them made to be:
And they that did upon me look
did shake their heads at me.

26 O do thou help and succour me,
who art my God and Lord:
And, for thy tender mercies sake,
safety to me afford. (this

27 That thereby they may know, that is thy almighty hand; (same,
And that thou, Lord, hast done the
they may well understand.

28 Although they curse with spite, yet,
bless thou with loving voice: (Lord,
Let them ashamed be when they rise;
thy servant let rejoice.

29 Let thou mine adversaries all with shame be clothed over,
And let their own confusion
them, as a mantle, cover.

30 But as for me, I with my mouth
will greatly praise the Lord;
And I among the multitude
his praises will record.

31 For he shall stand at his right hand
who is in poverty,
To save him from all those that would condemn his soul to die.

P S A L. CX.

The Lord did say unto my Lord,
Sit thou at my right hand,
Until I make thy foes a fool
whereon thy feet may stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Z on send
the rod of thy great pow'r:
In midst of all thine enemies
be thou the governor.

3 A willing people, in thy day
of pow'r, shall come to thee:
In holy beauties, from morn's womb:
thy youth like dew shall be.

4 The Lord himself hath made an oath,
and will repent him never,
Of th' order of Melchisedec
thou art a priest for ever.

5 The glorious and mighty Lord,
that sits at thy right hand,
Shall in his day of wrath, strike through kings that do him withstand.

6 He shall among the heathen judge,
he shall with bodies dead
The places fill; o'er many lands
he wound shall ev'ry head.

7 The brook that runneth in the way
with drink shall him supply:
And for this cause, in triumph he shall lift his head on high.

P S A L. CXI.

Praise ye the Lord: with my whole
I will God's praise declare, (heart Where the assemblies of the just
and congregations are. (God,

2 The whole works of the Lord our
are great above all measure, Sought out they are of ev'ry one that doth therein take pleasure.

3 His work most honourable is,
most glorious and pure,
And his untrained righteousness
for ever doth endure.

4 His works most wonderful he hath made to be thought upon:
The Lord is gracious, and he is full of compassion.

5 He giveth meat unto all those
that truly so him fear;
And evermore his covenant
he in his mind will bear.

6 He did the power of his works
unto his people show,
When he the heathens heritage
upon them did bestow.

7 His handy-works are truth and all his commands are sure. (right;
8 And done in truth and uprightness
they evermore endure.

9 He sent redemption to his folk,
his covenant for ay
He did command: holy his name
and reverend is alway.

10 Wisdom's beginning is God's fear;
good understanding they Have all, that his commands fulfil:
his praise endures for ay.

PSALM CXII, CXIII, CXIV, CXV.

PSALM CXII.

Praise ye the Lord. The man is blest that fears the Lord aright,
He who in his commandments doth greatly take delight.

2 His seed and offspring powerful shall be the earth upon;
Of upright men blessed shall be the generation.

3 Riches and wealth shall ever be within his house in store;
And his unspotted righteousness
endures for evermore.

4 Unto the upright light doth rise,
though he in darkness be:
Compassionate and merciful,
and righteous is he.

5 A good man doth his favour shew,
and doth to others lend:
He with discretion his affairs
will guide unto the end.

6 Surely there is not any thing
that ever shall him move;
The righteous man's memorial shall everlasting prove.

7 When he shall evil tidings hear,
he shall not be afraid:
His heart is fix'd, his confidence
upon the Lord is laid.

8 His heart is firmly established,
afraid he shall not be,
Until upon his enemies
he his desire shall see.

9 He hath dispers'd, giv'n to the poor;
his righteousness shall be To ages all; with honour shall his horn be raised high.

10 The wicked shall it see, and fret,
his teeth gnash, melt away:
What wicked men do most desire shall utterly decay.

PSALM CXIII.

Praise God: ye servants of the Lord.
O praise, the Lord's name praise.

2 Yea, blessed be the name of God
from this time forth always.

3 From rising sun, to where it sets,
God's name is to be prais'd.

4 Above all nations God is high,
'bove heav'n's his glory rais'd.

5 Unto the Lord our God, that dwells
on high, who can compare?

6 Himself that humbleth things to see in heav'n and earth that are.

7 He from the dust doth raise the poor,
that very low doth lie:

And from the dunghill lifts the man
oppress'd with poverty:

8 That he may highly him advance,
and with the princes set,

With those that of his people are the chief, ev'n princes great.

9 The barren woman house to keep
he maketh, and to be

Of sons a mother full of joy.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CXIV.

When Isra'l out of Egypt went,
and did his dwelling change.

When Jacob's house went out from that were of language strange: (those

2 He Judah and his sanctuary,
his kingdom Isra'l make:

3 The sea it saw, and quickly fled,
Jordan was driven back.

4 Like rams the mountains, and like the hills skip to and fro. (lambs

5 O sea, why fledst thou? Jordan, back why wast thou driven to?

6 Ye mountains great, wherefore wast it that ye did skip like rams?

And wherefore wast it, little hills,
that ye did leap like lambs?

7 O at the presence of the Lord
earth tremble thou for fear.

While as the presence of the God
of Jacob doth appear.

8 Who from the hard and stony rock
did standing water bring.

And by his power did turn the flint
into a water-spring.

PSALM CXV.

Not unto us, Lord, not to us,
but do thou glory take

Unto thy name, ev'n for thy truth,
and for thy mercies sake.

2 O wherefore should the heathen say,
Where is their God now gone?

3 But our God in the heavens is,
what pleas'd him he hath done.

4 Their idols silver are and gold,
work of men's hands they be; (speak

5 Mouths have they, but they do not
and eyes, but do not see: (hear;

6 Ears have they, but they do not noises, but favour not: (walk;

7 Hands, feet, but handle not, nor nor speak they through their throat.

8 Like them their makers are, and all
on them their trust that build.

9 O Isra'l, trust thou in the Lord,
he is their help and shield.

10 O Aaron's house, trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he.

11 Ye that fear God, trust in the Lord,
their help and shield he'll be.

12 The Lord of us hath mindful been,
and he will bless us still:

He will the house of Isra'l bless,
bless Aaron's house he will. (Lord,

13 Both small and great that fear the
he will them surely bless. (fear,

14 The Lord will you, you and your
ay more and more increase.

15 O blessed are ye of the Lord,
who made the earth and heav'n.

16 The heav'n, ev'n heav'n's are God's, earth to men's sons hath giv'n. (But he

17 The dead, nor who to silence go,
God's praise do not record.

18 But henceforth we for ever will bless God. Praise ye the Lord.

PSAL. CXVI.

- I Love the Lord, because my voice
and prayers he did hear.
2 I, while I live, will call on him,
who bow'd to me his ear.
3 Of death the cords and sorrows did
about me compass round:
The pains of hell took hold on me,
I grief and trouble found.
4 Upon the name of God the Lord
then did I call; and say,
Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.
5 God merciful and righteous is,
yea, gracious is our Lord. (low,
6 God saves the meek: I was brought
he did me help afford.
7 O thou my soul, do thou return
unto thy quiet rest;
For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath exprest.
8 For my distressed soul from death
deliver'd was by thee: (tears, Thou didst my mourning eyes from my feet from falling free.
9 I in the land of those that live
will walk the Lord before.
10 I did believe, therefore I spake:
I was afflicted sore.
11 I said, when I was in my haste,
that all men liars be.
12 What shall I render to the Lord,
for all his gifts to me?
13 I'll of salvation take the cup,
on God's name will I call.
14 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord,
before his people all. (death.
15 Dear in God's sight is his saints
16 Thy servant, Lord, am I, (son:
Thy servant sure, thine handmaid's
my bands thou didst untie.
17 Thank-off'rings I to thee will give,
and on God's name will call.
18 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
before his people all: (house, 19 Within the courts of God's own
within the midst of thee,
O city of Jerusalem.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSAL. CXVII.

- O Give ye praise unto the Lord,
all nations that be:
Likewise, ye people all, accord
his name to magnify.
2 For great to us-ward ever are his loving kindnesses:
His truth endures for evermore.
The Lord O do ye bleis.

PSAL. CXVIII.

- O Praise the Lord, for he is good:
his mercy lasteth ever.
2 Let those of Israel now say,
his mercy faileth never.
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy lasteth ever.
4 Let those that fear the Lord now say,
his mercy faileth never.

- 5 I in distress call'd on the Lord,
the Lord did answer me:
He in a large place did me set,
from trouble made me free.
6 The mighty Lord is on my side,
I will not be afraid:
For any thing that man can do
I shall not be dismay'd.
7 The Lord doth take my part with that help to succour me: (them
Therefore on those that do me hate
I my desire shall see.
8 Better it is to trust in God,
than trust in man's defence:
9 Better to trust in God, than make princes our confidence.
10 The nations, joining all in one,
did compass me about:
But in the Lord's most holy name
I shall them all root out.
11 They compass'd me about, I say,
they compass'd me about:
But in the Lord's most holy name
I shall them all root out.
12 Like bees they compass'd me about,
like unto thorns that flame.
They quenched are: for them shall destroy in God's own name. (fall, 13 Thou fore hast thrust, that I might but my Lord helped me.
14 God my salvation is become,
my strength and song is he.
15 In dwellings of the righteous
is heard the melody
Of joy and health: the Lord's right hand
doth ever valiantly.
16 The right hand of the mighty Lord
exalted is on high:
The right hand of the mighty Lord
doth ever valiantly.
17 I shall not die, but live, and shall
the works of God discover.
18 The Lord hath me chastised sore,
but not to death giv'n over.
19 O set ye open unto me
the gates of righteousness:
Then will I enter into them,
and I the Lord will bleis.
20 This is the gate of God, by it
the just shall enter in. (beard'd 21 Thee will I praise, for thou me
and hast my safety been.
22 That stone is made head corner-stone
which builders did despise:
23 This is the doing of the Lord,
and wondrous in our eyes.
24 This is the day God made, in it
we'll joy triumphantly.
25 Save now, I pray thee, Lord, I pray,
send now prosperity.
26 Blessed is he, in God's great name
that cometh us to save:
We, from the house which to the Lord
pertains, you blessed have.
27 God is the Lord, who unto us
hath made light to arise:
Bind ye unto the altar's horns
with cords the sacrifice.

PSAL. CXIX.

25 Thou art my God, I'll thee exalt;
my God, I will thee praise.
29 Give thanks to God, for he is good:
his mercy lasts always.

A L E P H. The 1st Part.

Blessed are they that undefil'd,
and straight are in the way:
Who in the Lord's most holy law
do walk, and do not stray.
2 Blessed are they, who to observe
his statutes are inclin'd;
And who do seek the living God
with their whole heart and mind.
3 Such in his ways do walk, and they do no iniquity.
4 Thou hast commanded us to keep
thy precepts carefully.
5 O that thy statutes to observe thou would'st my ways direct.
6 Then shall I not be sham'd when I thy precepts all respect.
7 Then with integrity of heart
thee will I praise and bleis:
When I the judgments all have learn'd
of thy pure righteousness.
8 That I will keep thy statutes all firmly resolv'd have I:
9 O do not then, most gracious God,
forsake me utterly.

B E T H. The 2d Part.

9 By what means shall a young man his way to purity? (learn
If he according to thy word thereto attentive be.
10 Unfeign'dly thee have I sought,
with all my soul and heart:
11 Let me not from the right path
of thy commands depart.
12 Thy word I in my heart have hid,
that I offend not thee.
13 O Lord, thou ever blessed art, thy statutes teach thou me. (one 14 The judgments of thy mouth each my lips declared have.
15 More joy thy testimonies way
than riches all me gave.
16 I will thy holy precepts make my meditation:
And carefully I'll have respect
unto thy ways each one.
17 Upon thy statutes my delight
shall constantly be set:
And by thy grace I never will thy holy word forget.

G I M E L. The 3d Part.

17 With me thy servant, in thy grace,
deal bountifully, Lord:
That by thy favour I may live,
and duly keep thy word.
18 Open mine eyes, that of thy law
the wonders I may see.
19 I am a stranger on this earth,
hide not thy laws from me.
20 My soul within me breaks, and doth much fainting still endure,
through longing that it hath all times
unto thy judgments pure.

21 Thou hast rebuk'd the cursed proud:
who from thy precepts swerve.
22 Reproach and shame remove from
for I thy laws observe. (me,

23 Against me princes spake with spite,
while they in council sat:
But I thy servant did upon
thy statutes meditate.
24 My comfort, and my heart's delight,
thy testimonies be;
And they in all my doubts and fears are counsellors to me.

D A L E T H. The 4th Part.

25 My soul to dust cleaves: quicken me
according to thy word. (heard't:
26 My ways I shew'd, and me thou
teach me thy statutes, Lord.
27 The way of thy commandments
make me aight to know;
So all thy works, that wondrous are,
I shall to others show.
28 My soul doth melt, and drop away
for heaviness and grief:
To me, according to thy word,
give strength, and send relief.
29 From me the wicked way of lies let far removed be,
And graciously thy holy law
do thou grant unto me.
30 I chosen have the perfect way
of truth and verity:
Thy judgments that most righteous are
before me laid have I.
31 I to thy testimonies cleave:
shame do not on me cast.
32 I'll run thy precepts way, when thou
my heart enlarged hast.

H E. The 5th Part.

33 Teach me, O Lord, the perfect way
of thy precepts dwine,
And to observe it to the end
I shall my heart incline.
34 Give understanding unto me,
so keep thy law shall I, Yea, ev'n with my whole heart I shall observe it carefully.
35 In thy laws path make me to go,
for I delight therein.
36 My heart unto thy testimonies,
and not to greed incline.
37 Turn thou away my sight and eyes
from viewing vanity:
And in thy good and holy way
be pleas'd to quicken me.
38 Confirm to me thy gracious word,
which I did gladly hear, Ev'n to thy servant, Lord, who is devoted to thy fear. (proach I 39 Turn thou away my fear'd refor good thy judgments be.
40 Lo, for thy precepts I have long'd:
in thy truth quicken me.

V A U. The 6th Part.

41 Let thy sweet mercies also come and visit me, O Lord, Ev'n thy benign salvation,
according to thy word.

PSAL. CXIX.

62 So shall I have wherewith I may give him an answer just,
Who spitefully reprehendeth me;
for in thy word I trust.

43 The word of truth out of my mouth
take thou not utterly:
For on thy judgments righteous
my hope doth still rely.

44 So shall I keep for evermore
thy law continually.

45 And sith that I thy precepts seek,
I'll walk at liberty.

46 I'll speak thy word to kings, and I
with shame shall not be mov'd:

47 And will delight myself always in thy laws which I lov'd. (lov'd)

48 To thy commandments, which I
my hands lift up I will:
And I will also meditate upon thy statutes still.

Z A I N. The 7th Part.

49 Remember, Lord, thy gracious
thou to thy servant spake, (word)
Which, for a ground of my sure hope,
thou caus'dst me to take.

50 This word of thine my comfort is in mine affliction:
For in my straits I am reviv'd
by this thy word alone.

51 The men whose hearts with pride
did greatly me deride; (are dur'd)
Yet from thy straight commandments
I have not turn'd aside.

52 Thy judgments righteous, O Lord,
which thou of old forth gav'st,
I did remember, and myself
by them comforted have.

53 Horror took hold on me, because ill men thy law forsooke.

54 I in my house of pilgrimage
thy laws my songs do make.

55 Thy name by night, Lord, I did mind,
and I have kept thy law.

56 And this I had, because thy word
I kept, and stood in awe.

C H E T H. The 5th Part.

57 Thou my sure portion art alone,
which I did choole, O Lord:
I have resolv'd, and said, that I would keep thy holy word.

58 With my whole heart I did intreat
thy face and favour free:
According to thy gracious word
be merciful to me.

59 I thought upon my former ways,
and did my life well try:

And to thy testimonies pure
my feet then turned I.

60 I did not stay, nor linger long,
as those that slothful are;
But hastily thy laws to keep myself I did prepare.

61 Bands of ill men me robb'd; yet I thy precepts did not slack.

62 I'll rise at midnight thee to praise,
ev'n for thy judgments right.

63 I am companion to all those who fear and thee obey.

64 O Lord, thy mercy fills the earth;
teach me thy laws, I pray.

T E T H. The 9th Part.

65 Well hast thou with thy servant
as thou didst promise give. (dealt)

66 Good judgement me, and knowledge
for I thy word believe. (teach)

67 Ere I afflicted was, I stray'd;
but now I keep thy word. (doct)

68 Both good thou art, and good thou
teach me thy statutes, Lord.

69 The men that are putt up with pride
against me forg'd a lie;

Yet thy commandments observe
with my whole heart will I.

70 Their hearts, through worldly ease,
as fat as grease they be: (and wealth)
But in thy holy law I take delight continually.

71 It hath been very good for me,
that I afflicted was.

That I might well instructed be,
and learn thy holy laws. (through)

72 The word that cometh from thy is better unto me,
Than many thousands, and great sums
of gold and silver be.

J O D. The 10th Part.

73 Thou mad'st and fashion'd'st me:
to know, give wisdom, Lord: (thy laws)

74 So who thee fear shall joy to see me trusting in thy word.

75 That very right thy judgments are
I know, and do converse,
And that thou hast afflicted me
in truth and faithfulness.

76 O let thy kindness be merciful;
I pray thee, comfort me,

As to thy servant faithfully
was promised by thee.

77 And let thy tender mercies come to me, that I may live:

Because thy holy laws to me
sweet delectation give.

78 Lord, let the proud ashamed be:
for they, without a cause,

With me perversly dealt; but I will muse upon thy laws.

79 Let such as fear thee, and have known thy statutes, turn to me.

80 My heart let in thy laws be sound,
that sham'd I never be.

C A P H. The 11th Part.

81 My soul for thy salvation faints:
yet I thy word believe.

82 Mine eyes fail for thy word, I say:
When wilt thou comfort give?

83 For like a bottle I'm become,
that in the smoke is set:

I'm black and parch'd with grief, yet I thy statutes not forget.

84 How many are thy servant's days?
when wilt thou execute

just judgment on these wicked men
that do me persecute?

85 The proud have digg'd pits for me,
which is against thy laws.

PSAL. CXIX.

86 Thy words all faithful are : help me
pursu'd without a caule.

87 They so consum'd me, that on earth
my life they scarce did leave :
Thy precepts yet forsook I not,
but close to them did cleave.

88 After thy loving kindnes, Lord,
me quicken and preserve :
The testimony of thy mouth
so shall I still observe.

L A M E D. The 12th Part.

89 Thy word for ever is, O Lord,
in heaven settled fast :

90 Unto all generations
thy faithfulness doth last :

The earth thou hast established,
and it abides by thee. (dain'd'st ;

91 This day they stand as thou order all thy servants be.

92 Unless in thy most perfect law
my ~~no~~ delights had found,
I should have perished, when as my troubles did abound.

93 Thy precepts I will ne'er forget :
they quickning to me brought.

94 Lord, I am thine, O save thou me :
thy precepts I have sought.

95 For me the wicked have laid wait,
me seeking to destroy :

But I thy testimonies true
consider will with joy.

96 An end of all perfection
here have I seen, O God :
But as for thy commandment,
it is exceeding broad.

M E M. The 13th Part.

97 O how love I thy law ! it is my study all the day.

98 It makes me wiser than my foes :
for it doth with me stay.

99 Than all my teachers now I have more understanding far :
Because my meditation
thy testimonies are.

100 In understanding I excel
those that are ancients ;

For I endeavour'd to keep all thy commandments.

101 My feet from each ill way I stay'd,
that I may keep thy word. (twerv'd,

102 I from thy judgments have not for thou hast taught me, Lord.

103 How sweet unto my taste, O Lord,
are all thy words of truth !

Yea, I do find them sweeter far,
than honey to my mouth. (pure,

104 I, through thy precepts that are
do understanding get :

I therefore ev'ry way that's false
with all my heart do hate.

N U N. The 14th Part.

105 Thy word is to my feet a lamp,
and to my path a light.

106 I sworn have, and I will perform,
to keep thy judgments right.

107 I am with sore affliction
ev'n overwhelm'd, O Lords

In mercy raise, and quicken me,
according to thy word.

108 The free-will-off'rings of my accept, I thee beseech : (mouth

And unto me thy servant, Lord,
thy judgments clearly teach.

109 Though still my soul be in my hand,
thy laws I'll not forget. (me

110 I err'd not from them, though for the wicked snares did set.

111 I of thy testimonies have above all things made choice,

To be my heritage for ay,
for they my heart rejoice.

112 I carefully inclined have
my heart, still to attend,

That I thy statutes may perform always unto the end.

S A M E C H. The 15th Part.

113 I hate the thoughts of vanity,
but love thy law do I. (art :

114 My shield and hiding-place thou
I on thy word rely.

115 All ye that evil-doers are,
from me depart away ;

For the commandments of my God
I purpose to obey.

116 According to thy faithful word
uphold and stablish me,

That I may live, and of my hope ashamed never be.

117 Hold thou me up, so shall I be in peace and safety still :

And to thy statutes have respect continually I will.

118 Thou tread'st down all that love to false their deceit doth prove. (stray,

119 Lewd men, like dross, away thou therefore thy law I love. (putt'st,

120 For fear of thee my very flesh
doth tremble, all dismay'd ;

And of thy righteous judgments, Lord,
my soul is much afraid.

A I N. The 16th Part.

121 To all men I have judgment done,
performing justice right :

Then let me not be left unto my fierce oppressors might.

122 For good unto thy servant, Lord,
thy servant's surety be :

From the oppression of the proud
do thou deliver me.

123 Mine eyes do fail with looking long
for thy salvation,

The word of thy pure righteousness
while I do wait upon.

124 In mercy with thy servant deal,
thy laws me teach and show.

125 I am thy servant, wisdom give,
that I thy laws may know.

126 'Tis time thou work, Lord, for they made void thy law divine. (have 127 Therefore thy precepts more I love

than gold, yea, gold most fine.

128 Concerning all things, thy com-
all right I judge therefore : (mands

And ev'ry false and wicked way
I perfectly abhor.

P S A L. CXIX.

P E. The 17th Part.

129 Thy statutes, Lord, are wonderful,
my soul them keeps with care.
130 The entrance of thy words gives makes wise who simple are. (light, 131 My mouth I have wide opened,
and panted earnestly,
While after thy commandments
I long'd exceedingly.

132 Look on me, Lord, and merciful
do thou unto me prove,
As thou art wont to do to those thy name who truly love.
133 O let my footsteps in thy word
aright still order'd be:
Let no iniquity obtain dominion over me.

134 From man's oppression save thou
so keep thy laws I will. (me, 135 Thy face make on thy servant shine;
teach me thy statutes still.
136 Rivers of waters from mine eyes
did run down, when I saw,
How wicked men run on in sin,
and do not keep thy law.

T S A D D I. The 18th Part.

137 O Lord, thou art most righteous,
thy judgments are upright.
138 Thy testimonies thou command'st
most faithful are and right.
139 My zeal hath ev'n consumed me,
because mine enemies Thy holy words forgotten have,
and do thy laws despise.

140 Thy word's most pure, therefore on thy servant's love is set. (it 141 Small, and despis'd I am, yet I thy precepts not forget.
142 Thy righteousness is righteousness,
which ever doth endure:
Thy holy law, Lord, also is the very truth most pure.

143 Trouble and anguish have me
and taken hold on me. (found, Yet in my trouble my delight
thy just commandments be.
144 Eternal righteousness is in thy testimonies all:
Lord, to me understanding give,
and ever live I shall.

K O P H. The 19th Part.

145 With my whole heart I cry'd, Lord,
I will thy word obey. (hear:
146 I cry'd to thee, save me, and I will keep thy laws alway.
147 I of the morning did prevent the dawning, and did cry:
For all mine expectation
did on thy word rely.

148 Mine eyes did timeously prevent
the watches of the night;
That in thy word, with careful mind,
then meditate I might.
149 After thy loving kindness hear
my voice that calls on thee:
According to thy judgment, Lord,
revive and quicken me.

150 Who follow mischief, they draw
they from thy law are far: (night;
151 But thou art near, Lord: most firm
all thy commandments are. (truth 152 As for thy testimonies all,
of old this have I try'd,
That thou hast surely founded them
for ever to abide.

R E S H. The 20th Part.

153 Consider mine affliction,
in safety do me set:
Deliver me, O Lord, for I
thy law do not forget.
154 After thy word revive thou me!
save me, and plead my cause.
155 Salvation is from sinners far,
for they seek not thy laws.

156 O Lord, both great and manifold thy tender mercies be:
According to thy judgments just
revive and quicken me.
157 My persecutors many are,
and foes that do combine:
Yet from thy testimonies pure
my heart doth not decline.

158 I saw transgressors, and was griev'd:
for they kept not thy word.
159 See how I love thy law! as thou art kind, me quicken, Lord.
160 From the beginning all thy word
hath been most true and sure;
Thy righteous judgments ev'ry one for evermore endure.

S C H I N. The 21st Part.

161 Princes have persecuted me,
although no cause they saw:
But still of thy most holy word
my heart doth stand in awe.
162 I at thy word rejoice, as one of spoil that finds great store.
163 Thy law I love, but lying all
I hate and do abhor.

164 Sev'n times a day it is my care
to give due praise to thee:
Because of all thy judgments, Lord,
which righteous ever be. (thy law:
165 Great peace have they who love
offence they shall have none.
166 I hop'd for thy salvation, Lord,
and thy commands have done.

167 My soul thy testimonies pure observed carefully:
On them my heart is set, and them
I love exceedingly.
168 Thy testimonies and thy laws
I kept with special care:
For all my works, and ways each one,
before thee open are.

T A U. The 22d Part.

169 O let my earnest pray'r and cry
come near before thee, Lord:
Give understanding unto me,
according to thy word.
170 Let my request before thee come after thy word me free.
171 My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught thy laws to me.

PSAL. CXX, CXXI, CXXII, CXXIII, CXXIV.

172 My tongue of thy most blessed word shall speak, and it confess:
Because all thy commandments
are perfect righteousness. (me) 173 Let thy strong hand make help to thy precepts are my choice.
174 I long'd for thy salvation, Lord,
and in thy law rejoice.

175 O let my soul live, and it shall give praises unto thee:
And let thy judgments gracious
be helpful unto me.

176 I like a lost sheep went astray,
thy servant seek, and find:
For thy commands I suffer'd not to slip out of my mind.

PSAL. CXX.

IN my distress to God I cry'd,
and he gave ear to me.
2 From lying lips, and guileful tongue,
O Lord, my soul set free. (shall) 3 What shall be giv'n thee? or what
be done to thee, false tongue?
4 Ev'n burning coals of juniper,
sharp arrows of the strong.
5 Wo's me, that I in Meshech am
a sojourner so long;
That I in tabernacles dwell
to Kedar that belong.
6 My soul with him that hateth peace
hath long a dweller been.
7 I am for peace: but when I speak,
for battle they are keen.

PSAL. CXXI.

I To the hills will lift mine eyes,
from whence doth come mine aid.
2 My safety cometh from the Lord,
who heav'n and earth hath made.
3 Thy foot he'll not let slide, nor will he slumber that thee keep:
4 Behold, he that keeps Israel,
he slumbers not, nor sleeps.
5 The Lord thee keeps, the Lord thy on thy right hand doth stay. (shade)
6 The moon by night thee shall not nor yet the sun by day. (smite, 7 The Lord shall keep thy soul, he shall preserve thee from all ill.
8 Henceforth thy going out and in God keep for ever will.

PSAL. CXXII.

I Joy'd when to the house of God,
Go up they said to me.
2 Jerusalem, within thy gates
our feet shall standing be.
3 Jerusalem as a city is,
compactly built together:
4 Unto that place the tribes go up,
the tribes of God go thither:
To Isra'l's testimony, there
to God's name thanks to pay.
5 For thrones of judgment, ev'n the
of David's house there stay. (thrones) 6 Pray that Jerusalem may have peace and felicity:
Let them that love thee, and thy peace,
have still prosperity.

7 Therefore I wish that peace may still within thy walls remain,
And ever may thy palaces
prosperity retain. (fakes,
8 Now, for my friends and brethren
Peace be in thee, I'll say.
9 And for the house of God our Lord,
I'll seek thy good away.

PSAL. CXXIII.

O Thou that dwellest in the heav'ns,
I lift mine eyes to thee.
2 Behold, as servants eyes do look
their masters hand to see,
As handmaid's eyes her mistress hand,
so do our eyes attend
Upon the Lord our God, until
to us he mercy send.

3 O Lord, be gracious to us,
unto us gracious be;
Because replenish'd with contempt exceedingly are we.
4 Our soul is fill'd with scorn of those that at their ease abide,
And with the insolent contempt
of those that swell in pride.

PSAL. CXXIV.

HAd not the Lord been on our side,
may Israel now say:
2 Had not the Lord been on our side,
when men rose us to slay: (as 3 They had us swallow'd quick, when their wrath 'gainst us did flame:
4 Waters had cover'd us, our soul
had sunk beneath the stream.

5 Then had the waters, swelling high,
over our soul made way.
6 Blest be the Lord, who to their teeth
us gave not for a prey.
7 Our soul's escaped, as a bird
out of the fowler's snare:
The snare asunder broken is,
and we escaped are.
8 Our sure and all-sufficient help
is in JEHOVAH's name;
His name, who did the heav'n create,
and who the earth did frame.

Answer of the same.

NOW Israel
may say, and that truly,
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd:
2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd,
When cruel men
against us furiously
Rose up in wrath,
to make of us their prey.
3 Then certainly
they had devour'd us all,
And swallow'd quick,
for ought that we could deem;
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem.
4 And as fierce floods
before them all things drown,
So had they brought
our soul to death quite down.

PSAL. CXXV, CXXVI, CXXVII, CXXVIII, CXXIX, CXXX.

3 The raging Greatnes,
with their proud swelling waves,
Had then our soul
overwhelmed in the deep.

6 But blest be God,
who doth us safely keep,
And hath not giv'n
us for a living prey Unto their teeth
and bloody cruelty.

7 Ev'n as a bird
out of the fowler's snare
Escapes away,

so is our soul set free:
Broke are their nets,
and thus escaped we.

8 Therefore our help
is in the Lord's great name,
Who heav'n and earth
by his great pow'r did frame.

PSAL. CXXV.

THEY in the Lord that firmly trust,
shall be like Zion hill,
Which at no time can be remov'd,
but standeth ever still.

2 As round about Jerusalem
the mountains stand alway,
The Lord his folk doth compass so from henceforth and for ay.

3 For ill mens rod upon the lot of just men shall not ly; (hands)
Lest righteous men stretch forth their unto iniquity.

4 Do thou to all those that be good thy goodness, Lord, impart:
And do thou good to those that are upright within their heart.

5 But as for such as turn aside
after their crooked way,
God shall lead forth with wicked men:
on Isra'l peace shall stay.

PSAL. CXXVI. (back,

WHEN Zion's bondage God turn'd
as men that dream'd were we.

2 Then fill'd with laughter was our tongue with melody. (mouth,
They 'mong the heathen said, The Lord
great things for them hath wrought.

3 The Lord hath done great things for whence joy to us is brought. (us,

4 As streams of water in the south,
our bondage, Lord, recal.

5 Who sow in tears, a reaping-time
of joy enjoy they shall.

6 That man, who bearing precious seed,
in going forth doth mourn,
He doubtless, bringing back his sheaves,
rejoicing shall return.

PSAL. CXXVII.

EXCEPT the Lord do build the house,
the builders lose their pain:
Except the Lord the city keep,
the watchmen watch in vain.

2 'Tis vain for you to rise betimes,
or late from rest to keep,
To feed on sorrows bread: so gives
he his beloved sleep.

3 Lo, children are God's heritage,
the womb's fruit his reward.

4 The sons of youth as arrows are,
for strong mens hands prepar'd.

5 O happy is that man that hath his quiver fill'd with those;
They unashamed in the gate
shall speak unto their foes.

PSAL. CXXVIII.

BLEST is each one that fears the Lord,
and walketh in his ways.

2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
and happy be always.

3 Thy wife shall, as a fruitful vine,
by thy house-sides be found:
Thy children like to olive-plants
about thy table round.

4 Behold, the man that fears the Lord,
thus blessed shall he be.

5 The Lord shall out of Zion give his blessing unto thee:

Thou shalt Jerusalem's good behold,
whilst thou on earth dost dwell.

6 Thou shalt thy children's children see,
and peace on Israel.

PSAL. CXXX.

OF did they vex me from my youth,
may Isra'l now declare.

2 Oft did they vex me from my youth,
yet not victorious were.

3 The plowers plow'd upon my back,
they long their furrows drew.

4 The righteous Lord did cut the cords
of the ungodly crew.

5 Let Zion's haters all be turn'd back with confusion.

6 As graft on houses tops be they,
which fades ere it be grown:

7 Whereof enough to fill his hand
the mower cannot find;

Nor can the man his bosom fill,
whose work is heaves to bind.

8 Neither say they who do go by,
God's blessing on you rest:

We, in the name of God the Lord,
do wish you to be blest.

PSAL. CXXX.

Lord, from the depths to thee I cry'd,
L 2 My voice, Lord, do thou hear:

Unto my supplications voice
give an attentive ear.

3 Lord, who shall stand, if thou, O Lord,
should'st mark iniquity?

4 But yet with thee forgiveness is,
that fear'd thou mayest be.

5 I wait for God, my soul doth wait,
my hope is in his word. (watch,

6 More than they that for morning
my soul waits for the Lord;

I say, more than they that do watch
the morning light to see.

7 Let Israel hope in the Lord,
for with him mercies be;

And plenteous redemption
is ever found with him.

8 And from all his iniquities
he Isra'l shall redeem.

PSAL. CXXXI.

MY heart not haughty is, O Lord,
mine eyes not lofty be:
Nor do I deal in matters great,
or things too high for me.
2 I surely have myself behav'd
with quiet sp^{irit}: it and mild,
As child of mother wean'd: my soul
is like a weaned child.
3 Upon the Lord let all the hope of Israel rely,
Ev'n from the time that present is
unto eternity.

PSAL. CXXXII.

David, and his afflictions all,
Lord, do thou think upon:
2 How unto God he sware, and vow'd
to Jacob's mighty One.
3 I will not come within my house,
nor rest in bed at all:
4 Nor shall mine eyes take any sleep,
nor eye-lids slumber shall;
5 Till for the Lord a place I find,
where he may make abode:
A place of habitation
for Jacob's mighty God.
6 Lo, at the place of Ephratah
of it we understood;
And we did find it in the fields,
and city of the wood.
7 We'll go into his tabernacles,
and at his footstool bow.
8 Arise, O Lord, into thy rest,
th' ark of thy strength, and thou.
9 O let thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness:
And let all those that are thy saints
shout loud for joyfulness.
10 For thine own servant David's sake,
do not deny thy grace,
Nor of thine own anointed One
turn thou away the face.
11 The Lord in truth to David sware,
he will not turn from it,
I of thy body's fruit will make upon thy throne to sit.
12 My cov'nant if thy sons will keep,
and laws to them made known,
Their children then shall also sit
for ever on thy throne.
13 For God of Zion hath made choice:
there he desires to dwell.
14 This is my rest, here still I'll stay;
for I do like it well.
15 Her food I'll greatly bless, her poor with bread will satisfy. (her saints) 16 Her priests I'll clothe with health,
shall shout forth joyfully.
17 And there will I make David's horn
to bud forth pleasantly:
For him that mine anointed is a lamp ordain'd have I.
18 As with a garment I will clothe with shame his enemies all:
at yet the crown that he doth wear
upon him flourish shall.

PSAL. CXXXIII.

Behold, how good a thing it is,
and how becoming well,
Together such as brethren are
in unity to dwell.
2 Like precious ointment on the head,
that down the beard did flow,
Ev'n Aaron's beard, and to the skirts
did of his garments go.
3 As Hermon's dew, the dew that doth
on Zion hills descend:
For there the blessing God commands,
life that shall never end.

PSAL. CXXXIV.

Behold, bless ye the Lord, all ye that his attendants are,
Ev'n you that in God's temple be,
and praise him nightly there.
2 Your hands within God's holy place
lift up, and praise his name.
3 From Zion hill the Lord thee bless,
that heav'n and earth did frame.

PSAL. CXXXV.

Praise ye the Lord, the Lord's name
his servants, praise ye God. (praise) 2 Who stand in God's house, in the
of our God make abode. (court)
3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
unto him praises sing:
Sing praises to his name, because it is a pleasant thing.
4 For Jacob to himself the Lord
did choose of his good pleasure,
And he hath chosen Israel
for his peculiar treasure.
5 Because I know assuredly,
the Lord is very great,
And that our Lords above all gods,
in glory hath his seat.
6 What things soever pleased the Lord,
that in the heav'n did he,
And in the earth, and seas, and all
the places deep that be.
7 He from the ends of earth doth make the vapours to ascend: (wind)
With rain he lightnings makes, and doth from his treasures send.
8 Egypt's first-born from man to beast
9 who smote. Strange tokens he
On Pharaoh and his servants sent,
Egypt, in midst of thee. (kingd)
10 He smote great nations, New great
11 Sihon of Hethbon king,
And Og of Bashan, and to nought
did Canaan's kingdoms bring.
12 And for a wealthy heritage
their pleasant land he gave,
An heritage which Israel
his chosen folk should have. (dur) 13 Thy name, O Lord, shall still be and thy memorial
With honour shall continu'd be
to generations all.
14 For why, the righteous God will his people righteously; (judge)
Concerning those that do him serve,
himself repent will he.

PSAL. CXXXVI.

- 15 The idols of the nations
of silver are and gold,
And by the hands of men is made
their fashion and mould.
- 16 Mouths have they, but they do not
eyes, but they do not see: (speak; 17 Ears have they, but hear not, and in their mouths no breathing be.
- 18 Their makers are like them, so are all that on them rely. (God;
19 O Isra'l's house, bless God, bless O Aaron's family.
- 20 O bless the Lord, of Levi's house
ye who his servants are;
And bless the holy name of God,
all ye the Lord that fear.
- 21 And blessed be the Lord our God,
from Zion's holy hill,
Who dwelleth at Jerusalem.
The Lord O praise ye still.

PSAL. CXXXVI.

for mercy hath he ever.

for he hath mercy ever.

18 Yea, famous kings in battle slew:
for his grace faileth never.

19 Ev'n Sihon king of Amorites:
for he hath mercy ever.

20 And Og the king of Bashanites:
for his grace faileth never.

21 Their land in heritage to have
(for mercy hath he ever.)

22 His servant Isra'l right he gave:
for his grace faileth never.

23 In our low state who on us thought:
for he hath mercy ever.

for he hath mercy ever.

26 Thanks to the God of heaven give:
for his grace faileth never.

Another of the same.

Praise God, for he is kind,
His mercy lasts for ay.

2 Give thanks with heart and mind
To God of gods alway:

For certainly
His mercies dure

Most firm and sure Eternally.

3 The Lord of lords praise ye,
Whose mercies still endure:

4 Great wonders only he Doth work by his great pow'r:

For certainly, &c.

5 Which God omnipotent,
By might and wisdom high,

The heav'n and firmament
Did frame, as we may see:

For certainly, &c.

6 To him who did out-stretch
This earth so great and wide,

Above the waters reach,
Making it to abide:

For certainly, &c.

7 Great lights he made to be,
For his grace lasteth ay.

8 Such as the sun we see,
To rule the lightsome day:

For certainly, &c.

9 Also the moon so clear,
Which shineth in our sight,

The stars that do appear,
To guide the darksome night:

For certainly, &c.

Who did his message scorn;

And in his anger hot
Did kill all their first-born:

For certainly, &c.

For his grace lasteth ever.

12 With a strong hand he wrought,
And stretch'd-out arm delivers:

For certainly, &c.

13 The sea he cut in two;
For his grace lasteth still:

14 And through its midst to go
Made his own Isra'l:

For certainly, &c.

15 But overwhelm'd and lost
Was proud king Pharaoh,

With all his mighty host,
And chariots there also:

For certainly, &c.

His chosen people led,

Ev'n through the desert dry,
And in that place them fed:

For certainly, &c.

PSALM CXXXVII, CXXXVIII, CXXXIX.

For his grace hath no bound.

18 Who slew, and spared not Kings famous and renown'd:
For certainly, &c.

19 Sihon th' Amorites king :

For his grace lasteth ever.

20 Og also who did reign :

The land of Bashan over :

For certainly, &c.

For certainly, &c.

25 Who to all flesh gives food :

For his grace faileth never.

26 Give thanks to God most good,

The God of heav'n for ever :

For certainly, &c.

PSALM CXXXVII.

BY Babel's streams we sat and wept,
When Zion we thought on.

2 In midst thereof we hang'd our harps
The willow-trees upch.

3 For there a song required they who did us captive bring ;

Our spoilers call'd for mirth, and said,

A song of Zion sing.

4 O how the Lord's song shall we sing
within a foreign land ?

5 If thee, Jerus'lem, I forget,

skill part from my right hand.

6 My tongue to my mouth's roof let
if I do thee forget, (cleave,

Jerusalem, and thee above

my chief joy do not let.

7 Remember Edom's children, Lord,

who in Jerus'lem's days,

Ev'n unto its foundation

Raze, raze it quite did say.

8 O daughter thou of Babylon,

near to destruction :

Bless shall he be that thee rewards,

as thou to us hast done.

9 Yea, happy surely shall he be,

thy tender little ones

Who shall lay hold upon, and them

shall dash against the stones.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

THEE will I praise with all my heart,
I will sing praise to thee

2 Before the gods. And worship will toward thy sanctuary.

I'll praise thy name, ev'n for thy truth,
and kindness of thy love :

For thou thy word hast magnify'd

all thy great name above.

3 Thou didst me answer in the day

when I to thee did cry :

And thou my fainting soul with strength

didst strengthen inwardly.

4 All kings upon the earth that thee
shall give thee praise, O Lord :
When as they from thy mouth shall hear
thy true and faithful word.

5 Yea, in the righteous ways of God

with gladness they shall sing :

For great's the glory of the Lord,

who doth for ever reign.

6 Though God be high, yet he respects
all those that lowly be ;

Whereas the proud and lofty ones afar off knoweth he.

7 Though I in midst of trouble walk,

I life from thee shall have :

'Gainst my foes wrath thou'lt stretch
thine hand,

thy right hand shall me save.

8 Surely, that which concerneth me,

the Lord will perfect make ;

Lord, still thy mercy lasts, do not thine own hands works forsake.

PSALM CXXXIX.

Lord, thou hast me search'd, and known.

2 Thou know'st my sitting down
And rising up, yea, all my thoughts

afar to thee are known.

3 My footsteps, and my lying down,

thou compass'st always ;

Thou also most int'rely art

acquaint with all my ways :

4 For in my tongue, before I speak,

not any word can be,

But altogether, lo, O Lord,

it is well known to thee.

5 Behind, before, thou hast be'st,

and laid on me thine hand.

6 Such knowledge is too strange for me,

too high to understand.

7 From thy Spirit whither shall I go ?

or from thy presence flee ?

8 Ascend I heav'n, is, thou art there ;

there, if in hell I fly.

9 Take I the morning-wings, and dwell

in utmost parts of sea : (lead,

10 Ev'n there, Lord, shall thy hand me

thy right hand hold shall me.

11 If I do say, that darkness shall

me cover from thy light,

Then surely shall the very night,

about me be as light.

12 Yea, darkness hideth not from thee,

but night doth shine as day :

To thee the darkness and the light

are both alike away :

13 For thou possessest half my reins,

and thou hast cover'd me,

When I within my mother's womb
inclos'd was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, for fearfully and strangely made I am ; (well

Thy works are marvellous, and right

my soul doth know the same.

15 My substance was not hid from when as in secret I (thee,

Was made ; and in earth's lowest parts
was wrought most curiously.

PSAL. CXL, CXLI, CXLI.

98 Thine eyes my substance did behold,
yet being unperfect:

And in the volume of thy book
my members all were writ;

Which after in continuance
were fashion'd ev'ry one,

When as they yet all shapeless were,
and of them there was none,

97 How precious also are thy thoughts,
O gracious God, to me!

And in their sum how passing great
and numberless they be!

98 If I should count them, than the sand
they more in number be:

What time I ever I awake,
I ever am with thee.

(say:

99 Thou, Lord, wilt sure the wicked
hence from me bloody men.

20 Thy foes against thee loudly speak,
and take thy name in vain.

21 Do not I hate all those, O Lord,
that hatred bear to thee?

With those that up against thee rise
can I but grieved be?

22 With perfect hatred them I hate,
my foes I them do hold.

(heart,

23 Search me, O God, and know my
try me, my thoughts unfold:

24 And see if any wicked way
there be at all in me;

And in thine everlasting way
to me a leader be.

PSAL. CXL.

Lord, from the ill and froward man
give me deliverance,
And do thou safe preserve me from the mas of violence.

2 Whoin their heart mischievous things
are meditating ever:

And they for war assembled are continually together.

3 Much like unto a serpent's tongue
their tongues they sharp do make;

And underneath their lips there lies
the poison of a snake.

(hands,

4 Lord, keep me from the wicked's
from violent men me save;

Who utterly to overthrow
my goings purpos'd have.

5 The proud for me a snare have hid,
and cords, yea, they a net

Have by the way-side for me spread,
they grin for me have set:

6 I said unto the Lord, Thou art
my God: upto the cry

Of all my supplications,
Lord, do thine ear apply.

7 O God the Lord, who art the strength of my salvation,

A covering in the day of war
my head thou hast put on.

8 Unto the wicked man, O Lord,
his wishes do not grant:

Nor further thou his ill device,
lest they themselves should vaunt.

9 As for the head and chief of those
about that compass me,

Ev'n by the mischief of their lips
let thou them cover'd be.

10 Let burning coals upon them fall,
them throw in fiery flame,
And in deep pits, that they no more
may rise out of the same.

11 Let not an evil speaker be on earth established:

Mischief shall hunt the violent man
till he be ruined.

12 I know God will th' afflicted's cause
maintain, and poor mens right.

13 Surely the just shall praise thy name,
th' upright dwell in thy sight

PSAL. CXLI.

O Lord, I unto thee do cry,
do thou make haste to me,
And give an ear unto my voice,
when I cry unto thee.

2 As incense let my prayer be directed in thine eyes;
And the uplifting of my hands
as th' ev'ning sacrifice.

3 Set, Lord, a watch before my mouth,
keep of my lips the door.

4 My heart incline thou not unto
the ill I should abhor,
To practise wicked works with men
that work iniquity:

And with their delicacies my taste
let me not satisfy.

5 Let him that righteous is me smite,
it shall a kindness be;

Let him reprove, I shall it count
a precious oil to me:

Such smiting shall not break my head;
for yet the time shall fall,
When I in their calamities
to God pray for them shall.

6 When as their judges down shall be in stony places cast:

(they

Then shall they hear my words, for shall sweet be to their taste.

7 About the grave's devouring mouth
our bones are scatter'd round,

As wood which men do cut and cleave,
lies scatter'd on the ground.

8 But unto thee, O God the Lord,
mine eyes uplifted be:

My soul do not leave destitute,
my trust is set on thee.

9 Lord, keep me safely from the snares
which they for me prepare;

And from the subtil grins of them
that wicked workers are.

10 Let workers of iniquity
into their own nets fall,

While I do by thine help escape
the danger of them all.

PSAL. CXLI.

I With my voice cry'd to the Lord,
with it made my request:

2 Pour'd out to him my plaint, to him
my trouble I express.

(sp'rit

3 When in me was o'erwhelm'd my then well thou knew'st my way:

Where

PSAL. CXLIH.

Where I did walk, a snare for me
they privily did lay.

4 I look'd on my righthand, and view'd,
but none to know me were:
All refuge failed me, no man
did for my soul take care.

5 I cry'd to thee, I said, Thou art
my refuge, Lord, alone,
And in the land of thole that live
thou art my portion.

6 Because I am brought very low,
attend unto my cry;

Me from my persecutors save,
who stronger are than I.

7 From prison bring my soul, that I
thy fame may glorify:

The just shall compass me, when thou
with me deal'st bounteously.

PSAL. CXLIH.

Lord, hear my pray'r, attend my
and in thy faithfulness (suits:
Give thou an answer unto me,
and in thy righteousness.

2 Thy servant also bring thou not,
in judgement to be try'd;

Because no living man can be in thy sight justify'd.

3 For th'en my hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground down tread:

In darkness he hath made me dwell,
as who have long been dead.

4 My spirit is therefore overwhelm'd
in me perplexedly;

Within me is my very heart
amazed wondrously.

5 I call to mind the days of old,
to meditate I use

On all thy works: upon the deeds
I of thy hands do muse.

6 My hands to thee I stretch: my soul
thirsts as dry land for thee.

7 Haste, Lord, to hear, my spirit fails:
hide not thy face from me:

Left like to them I do become,
that go down to the dust.

8 At morn let me thy kindness hear,
for in thee do I trust:

Teach me the way that I should walk,
I list my soul to thee.

9 Lord, free me from my foes, I flee
to thee to cover me.

10 Because thou art my God, to do thy will do me instruct:

Thy Spirit is good, me to the land
of uprightness conduct.

11 Revive and quicken me, O Lord,
ev'n for thine own name's sake:

And do thou for thy righteousness,
my soul from trouble take.

12 And of thy mercy slay my foes;
let all destroy'd be

That do afflict my soul, for I a servant am to thee.

Another of the same.

OH, hear my prayer, Lord,
And unto my desire

To bow thine ear accord,
I humbly thee require;
And in thy faithfulness
Unto me answer make,
And in thy righteousness
Upon me pity take.

2 In judgment enter not
With me thy servant poor
For why, this well I wot,
No sinner can endure
The sight of thee, O God,
If thou his deeds shalt try.
He dare make none abode Himself to justify.

3 Behold, the cruel foe
Me persecutes with spite,
My soul to overthrow:
Yea, he my life down quite Unto the ground hath smote,
And made me dwell full low
In darkness, as forgot,
Or men dead long ago.

4 Therefore, my spirit much vex'd Overwhelm'd is me within:
My heart right sore perplex'd,
And desolate hath been.

5 Yet I do call to mind
What ancient days rec'd,
Thy works of every kind
I think upon, O Lord.

6 Lo, I do stretch my hands
To thee my help alone,
For thou well understand'st
All my complaint and moan:
My thirsting soul desires
And longeth after thee,
As thirsty ground requires
With rain refresh'd to be.

7 Lord, let my pray'r prevail,
To answer it make speed,
For lo, my spirit doth fall:
Hide not thy face in need,
Lest I be like to those,
That do in darkness sit,
Or him that downward goes
Into the dreadful pit.

8 Because I trust in thee,
O Lord, cause me to hear
Thy loving kindness free,
When morning doth appear:
Cause me to know the way
Wherein my path should be;
For why, my soul on high
I do list up to thee.

9 From my fierce enemy
In safety do me guide,
Because I flee to thee,
Lord, that thou may'st me hide.

10 My God alone art thou,
Teach me thy righteousness:
Thy Spirit's good, lead me to
The land of uprightness.

11 O Lord, for thy name's sake,
Be pleas'd to quicken me:
And for thy truth forth take
My soul from misery.

12 And of thy grace destroy
My foes, and put to shame

PSAL. CXLIV, CXLV.

All who my soul annoy;
For I thy servant am.

PSAL. XLIV.

O Blessed ever be the Lord,
who is my strength and might,
Who doth instruct my hands to war,
my fingers teach to fight.
2 My goodness, fortress, my high tow'r,
deliverer, and shield,
In whom I trust: who under me
my people makes to yield.

3 Lord, what is man, that thou of him
doft to much knowledge take?
Or son of man, that thou of him
to great account doft make?
4 Man is like vanity: his days
as shadows pass away. (touch thou 5 Lord, bow thy heav'ns, come down,
the hills, and smoke shall they.

6 Cast forth thy lightnings, scatter them:
thine arrows shoot, them rout.
7 Thine hand send from above, me save,
from great depths draw me out;
And from the hand of children strange:
8 Whose mouth speaks vanity;
And their right hand is a right hand,
that works deceitfully.

9 A new song I to thee will sing,
Lord, on a plastery;
I on a ten-string'd instrument
will praises sing to thee.
10 Ev'n he it is, that unto kings
salvation doth send:
Who his own servant David doth
from hurtful sword defend.

11 O free me from strange childrens whose mouth speaks vanity; (hands,
And their right hand, a right hand is,
that works deceitfully.
12 That as the plants our sons may be in youth grown up that are;
Our daughters like to corner-stones,
carv'd like a palace fair:

13 That, to afford all kind of store,
our garners may be fill'd;
That our she-p' thousands, in our streets
ten thousands they may yield.
14 That strong our oxen be for work,
that go in-breaking be,
Nor going out, and that our streets
may from complaints be free.

15 Those people blessed are, who be in such a case as this:
Yea, blessed all those people are,
whose God JEHOVAH is.

PSAL. XLV.

Ill thee extol, my God, O King,
I'll bless thy name always.
2 Thee will I bless each day, and will thy name for ever praise.
3 Great is the Lord: much to be prais'd,
his greatness search exceeds.
4 Race unto race shall praise thy works;
and shew thy mighty deeds.

5 I of thy glorious majesty,
the honour will record,
I'll speak of all thy mighty works;
which wondrous are, O Lord.
6 Men of thine acts the might shall thine acts that dreadful are: (show,
And I, thy glory to advance,
thy greatness will declare.

7 The mem'ry of thy goodness great
they largely shall express;
With songs of praise they shall extol
thy perfect righteousness.
8 The Lord is very gracious,
in him compassions flow,
In mercy he is very great,
and is to anger slow.

9 The Lord JEHOVAH unto all
his goodness doth declare:
And over all his other works
his tender mercies are. (Lord, 10 Thee all thy works shall praise, O
and thee thy saints shall bless.
11 They shall thy kingdom's glory
thy pow'r by speech express. (show,

12 To make the sons of men to know
his acts done mightily,
And of his kingdom th' excellent
and glorious majesty.
13 Thy kingdom shall for ever stand,
thy reign through ages all.
14 God raise up all that are bow'd down,
upholdeth all that fall.

15 The eyes of all things wait on thee,
the giver of all good,
And thou in time convenient bestows on them their food.
16 Thine hand thou openest lib'rally,
and of thy bounty gives Enough to satisfy the need of ev'ry thing that lives.

17 The Lord is just in all his ways,
holy in his works all.
18 God's near to all that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
19 He will accomplish the desire of those that do him fear:
He also will deliver them,
and he their cry will hear.

20 The Lord preserves all who him
that nought can them annoy: (love,
But he all those that wicked are
will utterly destroy.
21 My mouth the praises of the Lord
to publish cease shall never:
Let all flesh bless his holy name
for ever and for ever.

Another of the same.

O Lord, thou art my God and King,
Thee will I magnify and praise:
I will thee bless, and gladly sing
Unto thy holy name always.
2 Each day I rise, I will thee bless,
And praise thy name time without end.
3 Much to be prais'd, and great God is,
His greatness none can comprehend.

P S A L. CXLVI, CXLVII.

4 Race shall thy works praise unto race,
The mighty acts show done by thee.
5 I will speak of thy glorious grace,
And honour of thy majesty:
Thy wondrous works I will record.
6 By men the might shall be extoll'd
Of all thy dreadful acts, O Lord:
And I thy greatness will unfold.

7 They utter shall abundantly
The mem'ry of thy goodness great,
And shall sing praises cheerfully,
Whilst they thy righteousness relate.
8 The Lord our God is gracious, Compassionate is he also,
In mercy he is plentiful,
But unto wrath and anger slow.

9 Good unto all men is the Lord:
O'er all his works his mercy is.
10 Thy works all praise to thee afford,
Thy saints, O Lord, thy name shall blefs.
11 The glory of thy kingdom show
Shall they, and of thy power tell. (know)
12 That to mens sons his deeds may
His kingdom's grace that doth extel:

13 Thy kingdom hath no end at all,
It doth through ages all remain.
14 The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
The cast down raiseth up again.
15 The eyes of all things, Lord, attend,
And on thee wait that here do live:
And thou in season due dost send Sufficient food them to relieve.

16 Yea, thou thine hand dost open wide,
And ev'ry thing dost satisfy
That lives, and doth on earth abide,
Of thy great liberality.
17 The Lord is just in his ways all,
And holy in his works each one.
18 He's near to all that on him call,
Who call in truth on him alone.

19 God will the just desire fulfil
Of such as do him fear and dread:
Their cry regard, and hear he will,
And save them in the time of need.
20 The Lord preserves all, more and That bear to him a loving heart: (less,
But workers all of wickedness,
Destroy will he, and clean subvert.

21 Therefore my mouth and lips I'll
To speak the praises of the Lord: (frame
To magnify his holy name
For ever let all flesh accord.

P S A L. CXLVI.

Praise God. The Lord praise, O my 2 I'll praise God while I live: (soul.
While I have being, to my God
In songs I'll praises give.
3 Trust not in princes, nor man's son,
In whom there is no stay. (turns:
4 His breath departs, to's earth he
that day his thoughts decay.

5 O happy is that man, and blest,
Whom Jacob's God doth aid,
Whose hope upon the Lord doth rest,
and on his God is staid:

6 Who made the earth, and heavens
who made the swelling deep, (high)
And all that is within the same:
who truth doth ever keep.

7 Who righteous judgment executes
for those oppress that be,
Who to the hungry giveth food:
God sets the prisoners free. (light) 8 The Lord doth give the blind their
the bowed down doth raise:
The Lord doth dearly love all those
that walk in upright ways.

9 The strangers shield, the widow's stay,
the orphan's help is he:
But yet by him the wicked's way
turn'd upside down shall be.
10 The Lord shall reign for evermore,
thy God, O Zion, he Reign: to all generations.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

P S A L. CXLVII.

Praise ye the Lord: for it is good praise to our God to sing;
For it is pleasant, and to praise
it is a comely thing.
2 God doth build up Jerusalem:
and he it is alone
That the dispers of Israel
doth gather into one.

3 Those that are broken in their hearts,
and grieved in their minds,
He healeth, and their painful wounds
he tenderly up-binds.
4 He counts the number of the stars:
he names them ev'ry one.
5 Great is our Lord, and of great pow'r:
his wisdom search can none.

6 The Lord lifts up the meek, and casts
the wicked to the ground.
7 Sing to the Lord, and give him thanks:
on harp his praises sound.
8 Who covereth the heav'n with clouds,
who for the earth below
Prepareth rain, who maketh grass
upon the mountains grow.

9 He gives the beast his food, he feeds
the ravens young that cry.
10 His pleasure not in horses strength,
nor in man's legs doth ly.
11 But in all those that do him fear,
the Lord doth pleasure take:
In those that to his mercy do
by hope themselves betake.

12 The Lord praise, O Jerusalem:
Zion, thy God confels.
13 For thy gates bars he maketh strong:
thy sons in thee doth blef.
14 He in thy borders maketh peace:
with fine wheat filleth thee. (earth, 15 He sends forth his command on his word runs speedily.

16 Hoar frost, like other, scattereth he like-wool he show doth give.
17 Like morsels scattereth forth his ice,
who in its cold can live:

PSALM CXLVIII, CXLIX.

18 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them again:
His wind he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow again.

19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth show;
His statutes and his judgments he saves Israel to know.
20 To any nation never he
such favour did afford;
For they his judgments have not known.
O do ye praise the Lord.

PSALM CXLVIII.

Praise God. From heavens, praise the in heights praise to him be. (Lord, 2 All ye his angels, praise ye him,
his hosts all, praise him ye.
3 O praise ye him both sun and moon,
praise him all stars of light. (floods 4 Ye heav'ns of heav'ns him praise, and above the heav'n's height.

5 Let all the creatures praise the name
of our almighty Lord:
For he commanded, and they were created by his word.
6 He also, for all times to come,
hath them establish'd sure:
He hath appointed them a law,
which ever shall endure.

7 Praise ye JEHOVAH from the earth,
dragons, and y'ry deep:
8 Fire, hail, snow, vapour, stormy wind,
his word that fully keep.
9 All hills and mountains, fruitful trees,
and all ye cedars high.
10 Beasts, and all cattle, creeping things,
and all ye birds that fly.

11 Kings of the earth, all nations,
princes, earth's judges all: (too, 12 Both young men, yea, and maidens
old men, and children small.
13 Let them God's name praise; for his alone is excellent: (name
His glory reacheth far above
the earth and firmament.

14 His people's horn, the praise of all his saints exalteth he,
Y'n Isra'l's seed, a people near to him. The Lord praise ye.

Another of the same.

The Lord of heav'n confess,
On high his glory raise.

2 Him let all angels bless,
Him all his armies praise.
3 Him glorify
Sun, moon and stars:
4 Ye higher spheres,
And cloudy sky.

5 From God your beings are,
Him therefore famous make:
You all created were,
When he the word but spake.

6 And from that place,
Where fix'd you be
By his decree,
You cannot pass.

7 Praise God from earth below,
Ye dragons, and ye deeps;
8 Fire, hail, clouds, wind and snow,
Whom in command he keeps.
9 Praise ye his name,
Hills great and small,
Trees low and tall:
10 Beasts wild and tame,

All things that creep or fly.
11 Ye kings, ye vulgar throngs,
All princes mean or high.
12 Both men and virgins young,
Y'n young and old.
13 Exalt his name;
For much his fame
Should be extoll'd.

O let God's name be praise'd
Above both earth and sky:
14 For he his saints hath rais'd
And set their horn on high;
Y'n those that be
Of Isra'l's race
Near to his grace.
The Lord Praise ye.

PSALM CXLIX.

Praise ye the Lord: unto him sing
a new song, and his praise
In the assembly of his saints
in sweet psalms; do ye raise.
2 Let Isra'l in his Maker joy,
and to him praises sing:
Let all that Zion's children are,
be joyful in their King.

3 O let them unto his great name
give praises in the dance:
Let them with timbrel and with harp
in songs his praise advance.
4 For God doth pleasure take in those that his own people be:
And he with his salvation
the meek will beautifie.

5 And in his glory excellent
let all his saints rejoice:
Let them to him upon their beds
aloud lift up their voice.
6 Let in their mouth aloft be rais'd
the high praise of the Lord,
And let them have, in their right hand,
a sharp two edged sword:

7 To execute the vengeance due
upon the heathen all,
And make deserved punishment
upon the people fall. (bind 8 And y'n with chains, as pris'ners, their kings that them command,
Yea, and with iron fetters strong,
the nobles of their land.

9 On them the judgment to perform
found written in his word:
This honour is to all his saints.
O do ye praise the Lord.

PSALM

PSAL. CL.

Praise ye the Lord. God's praise with-his sanctuary raise :
And to him in the firmament
of his pow'r give ye praise.
2 Because of all his mighty acts,
with praise h m magnify :
O praise him as he doth excel
in glorious majesty.

3 Praise him with trumpets sound, his
with psalterly advance :
4 With timbrel, harp, string'd instru-
and organs in the dance.
5 Praise him on cymbals loud, him praise
on cymbals founding high.
6 Let each thing breathing praise the
